Railway Peace Hopes Up

Negotiators Meet Two Hours Today In First Full Talks To End Long Strike

Queen Delivers Address

Reopens Parliament In First Session Under Leadership Of Anthony Eden

LONDON (P)—Union and government negotiators met for two hours today in their first full talks to end Britain's crippling 12-day-old rail strike and then adjourned until tomorrow.

Informed sources said the two sides traded views and the adjournment does not mean any breakdown.

Hopes stayed high for a quick end to the strike, which has slowed the nation's industrial boom. Some London newspapers said it might come within 48 hours.

Despite these hopes, however, Jim Baty, leader of the striking Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, told newsmen after the meeting:

"Nothing of a material kind has developed to date."

The peace talks began at the Ministry of Labor minutes after Queen Elizabeth II warned in a speech opening Parliament of "the grave situation created by the interruption of the railway services."

The 67,000 strikers of the Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen were represented by their Executive Council. On the other side was the British Transport Commission, managers of the state-owned railways.

The Labor Ministry assigned Sir Alfred Neden, its chief mediator, as chairman.

Prime aim of today's talks was to find a basis for ending the stoppage and then to proceed with wage-scale negotiations.

Agreement to negotiate was reached in a preliminary conference yesterday between the union's general secretary Jim Baty and Sir Brian Robertson, Transport Commission chairman. At the end of yesterday's conference they said in a joint statement:

"Both sides are agreed that there is now nothing which prevents them from dealing with each other in a spirit of mutual confidence in the good faith of the other."

Robertson made it clear the commission still insists the strike must be called off before it will discuss the union's wage demands.

The union is seeking a raise of $1.12 a week over present base pay of $27.30.

The powerful Trades Union Congress has formulated a peace plan calling for immediate negotiations without a return to work. Preliminary talks on a small temporary wage increase would be begun at once between the union and the commission.

Explosion Is Heard In East Part of City; Airplane Is Suspected

Residents in the east side of Sedalia reported through several calls to the police and The Democrat-Capital newsroom that a loud explosion was heard sometime around 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The report first came to the police station at 2:07 p.m. when an unidentified lady reported the crash sounded like a car had hit a tree around the 2100 block on South Ingram.

Later reports came from residents on East 18th Street, who though the explosion might be a plane breaking the sound barrier.

A check was made with Operations at the Sedalia Air Force Base which reported that none of their planes was on local flight, as the wing was attending a picnic at the Knob Noster Park in celebration of being combat-ready. The base, however, made a check with Grandview Air Base which reported they had several planes out on local missions which go as far as 100 miles from the base, but that they had no way of checking at that time.

He's Doing Better

The weatherman says we may have some showers this evening and that tomorrow will be as pleasant and cool as it has been today. We appreciate his predictions more this year than last. Maybe he just needed a vacation.

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday with chance of light showers tonight. High Friday in 70s.

St. Louis Firm Hit By Four-Alarm Fire

ST. LOUIS (P)—A four-alarm fire caused $50,000 damage to the Peterson Planing Mill Co. in South St. Louis last night and forced a number of nearby residents to flee from their homes.

One fireman was overcome by smoke. Flames broke through the roof of the two-story building but firemen managed to confine the blaze to the rear portion of the structure.

Families living in a residential unit and in other nearby dwellings fled because of dense smoke.

The fire, of undetermined origin, was fed by sawdust and lumber inside the mill. Twenty pieces of equipment answered the alarm.

UN Command Accuses Of 'Wanton Murder'

MUNSON, Korea (P)—The United Nations Command today accused the Communists of "wanton murder" of two South Korean soldiers in the demilitarized zone June 2.

The U.N. in a note to the Communists said Reds shot the two men while they were working in the United Nations half of the truce zone and then dragged one body across to Red territory.

The Communist radio earlier denied the U.N. version of the incident. Peiping radio said the men were "invading agents" who opened fire first.

Cardinal Says Peron Efforts Are Nazi-Like

NEW YORK (AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman says recent anti-Catholic measures in Argentina "suggest a renaissance of Nazism" accompanied by a strange hidden influence.

The Roman Catholic archbishop of New York told a Fordham University graduating class yesterday that it "now appears that a new curtain of tyranny is descending on our blessed American atmosphere and blighting the Argentine."

Cardinal Spellman said persecution "might have been expected" in an avowedly atheistic or openly antireligious country, and added:

"But when this violent outbreak occurs in a nation such as Argentina, whose populace and whose government have been traditionally and predominantly Catholic, there must be hidden somewhere a strange influence."

A year ago, the prelate said, Argentine President Juan D. Peron "stated that he considered himself Catholic and a servant of the doctrine of Christ."

Cardinal Spellman said "the rapid sequence of amazing events occurring in a Catholic country with a systematically organized program of violence against the bishops and clergy and the imprisonment of many of the religious and clergy who dared to criticize the ruling party and its leaders . . . suggest a renaissance of nazism in the Argentine."

The cardinal designated Sunday, July 3, as a day of special prayer and general communion "for all the suffering peoples behind the Iron and Bamboo curtains."

He urged Catholics in his archdiocese to pray "in a special way for the bishops, priests, religious and laity of the Argentine, where persecution has now broken out in this our New World."

Truck Drivers Get Whistles With Shorts

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Girls, here's your chance to whistle back at the truck driver.

That is if he's one of the eight with a trucking firm here who have gone in for Bermuda shorts: grey denim with a green stripe running down the side.

Driver E. L. Walden said, "I get compliments from truck stop waitresses—all the way from here to Chattanooga."

No comment from the 20 drivers sticking to more formal wear.

and 30 overtime parkers who reported to police headquarters paid the 25-cent fee.

Waiting for 'Light'

PETERSBRUG, Va. (AP)—There it was, a truck as big as a house, parked smack in the middle of a city intersection.

A policeman wanted to know why the truck didn't move but the driver, Charles H. Turner, 22, of Moberly, Mo., said he was waiting for the light to change.

There was only one thing wrong with his story. There wasn't any light at the intersection.

Turner was fined $100 and given a 30-day jail sentence on a charge of drunk driving.

Psychologists say that many people become more immature emotionally as their age increases.

Family Wins Prizes At Breeder Exhibit

SOUTH SIOUX CITY, Neb. (AP)—When Aberdeen-Angus breeders of Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota held their annual field day yesterday the entire Frank Beelaert family, of Page Neb., entered judging contests.

This is what happened: Mr. Beelaert tied for first with O. W. Weidauer, Lemars, Iowa, in the men's contest but got the trophy on a flip of the coin. Son Bob won the junior award. Mrs. Dick Bruner, David City, Neb., in the women's contest but lost the trophy on a flip of the coin.

About Town

Mrs. John B. O'Brien, Nevada, has returned home after spending a week in Sedalia visiting friends and relatives. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Walter Cramer, Mrs. John Craig and Mrs. Jerry Hanenkratt, all of Sedalia.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thomas, 918 South Stewart, have returned from Spearville, and Dodge City, Kan., where they visited several days with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Owen and children. Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Owen are sisters.

Barbara Kyger
Becomes Bride
Of Rev. Gross

Before an arrangement of lighted tapers in candelabra, palms and large fan-shaped bouquets of pastel flowers, Miss Barbara Ann Kyger became the bride of Robert L. Gross at the Olive Branch Baptist Church, northeast of Sedalia Sunday, May 22.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert M. Kyger of New Bloomfield. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern R. Gross of Adriana.

Rev. Harold Hunker of Canon City, Colo., performed the double ring ceremony. Rev. Gilbert Hulme, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." John McCoy played the traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza over white satin and nylon net. The gown was fashioned with a fitted basque. The yoke was trimmed with lace, sequins and pearls and the long tight-fitted sleeves came to points over her wrists. The bouffant skirt, worn over hoops, ended in a chapel length train. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls. Her fingertip nylon tulle veil was attached to a coronet of pearls and sequins, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Elsie Weigand of Illinois was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of pastel green nylon net over taffeta which was designed with a fitted bodice and full skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Kay McHenry, LaPlata, and Miss Joyce Garrett, West Plains, cousins of the bride, served as candlelighters. Their gowns were of white nylon net over taffeta, and they wore wrist corsages of red carnations.

Mr. Burley Gross of Adriana served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Robert Guier, Sweet Springs, cousin of the bride and Everett Werst, Sedalia, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kyger wore a pink silk suit with matching hat and black accessories. Mrs. Gross wore navy blue crepe with white accessories. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the church immediately following the ceremony. The serving table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The guests were served cake and punch by the bride's aunts, Mrs. Frank Mitts, Marshall, Mrs. Raymond Garrett, West Plains, Mrs. John Griffin, Mrs. Jo Arment, Macon, Mrs. Edmund Guier, Sweet Springs. They were assisted by the ladies of the church.

Mrs. Everett Werst, Sedalia, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left on a wedding trip to St. Louis after the reception. For traveling the bride wore a navy and white print dress with white accessories, and the corsage from the center of her bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross will make their home at 1128 Angelica Street, St. Louis. Mrs. Gross graduated from Fulton High School, 1952. She is a third year student of Missouri University School of Nursing, and is vice-president of the Baptist Student Union.

Mr. Gross is a graduate of Archie High School class of 1946 and of the University of Missouri where he received a degree in education. At present he is a student at Central Baptist Seminary, Kansas City, Kan., and pastor of Olive Branch Baptist Church.

Miss Ballenger Becomes Bride Of Joseph Fry

Miss Helen Ruth Ballenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Ballenger and Mr. Joseph C. Fry, St. Charles, son of Mrs. Delphia Fry, Sedalia, were united in marriage Saturday, May 28, at the Marshall Christian Church. The Rev. Hawey Baker Smith performed the ceremony.

Miss Mary Ruth Witcher, Napoleon, and Mr. Bobby Witcher, Marshall, cousins of the bride, were the only attendants.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

They will reside in St. Charles where Mr. Fry is employed as an inspector for McDonnell Aircraft Co.

J. W. Coesters Celebrate 50th Wedding Day

Sunday, June 5, will be a day long remembered by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coester. That was the day chosen by the Coester children to observe the 50th wedding anniversary of their parents, the actual day being May 14, but on that date not all the children would have been able to be present.

After attending the morning church services in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Stover, a banquet was served in the church parlors. Following the dinner a brief service was conducted by the Rev. J. C. Sheddler. Marvin and Keith Coester, sons of the celebrants, sang appropriate hymn selections, accompanied by Mrs. Keith Coester.

Open house was held from 2-5 p.m. Mrs. Coester wore a copper blue dress of all over lace and a corsage of yellow roses.

The home was decorated with flowers and decorations in the traditional colors of gold and white. Streamers draped from the outside walls to a huge white and gold paper rose petal bell under which the four-tiered decorated anniversary wedding cake was placed. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Forest Parker.

The serving table held the punch bowls with crystal candelabra on either side of the cake. Flowers and ferns placed around the bowls added to the beauty of the table.

Mrs. Sylvia Smoyer, grand-daughter of the Coesters and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jud Smoyer was in charge of the guest book in which about 175 guests were registered.

The Coesters were married in 1905 and established their present home in Stover, this making them the oldest couple to have lived there continuously since then.

All the children and grand children were present as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Judson Smoyer and family, Lawrence, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Coester and family, Anthony, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. C. Miranda, New York City, Mr.

Program Give By Vacation Bible School

By Mrs. Herschel Small
STOVER—Commencement exercises for the closing of Daily Vacation Bible School was held at the close of the Sunday School hour at the Methodist Church Sunday morning, June 5.

Mrs. Warren Cooper, as superintendent, presented the kindergarten, primary and junior classes in a program of songs, memory Bible verses and Bible drills.

The Rev. DeVries told "The Story of Samuel" in a very realistic manner, assisted by Mrs. DeVries as she illustrated with flannelgraph.

Certificates were awarded to each pupil as well as recognition given to the teachers and helpers.

Teachers included Mrs. J. H. DeVries, nursery; Mrs. R. J. Blackman, kindergarten; Mrs. Kenneth Cooper, primary; Rev. J. H. DeVries and Mrs. Mildred Denning, juniors.

Other helpers were Pat Elkins, Judy Stevenson, Myrna Geary, Martha Martin and Mrs. Hugh Wilson.

The men of the church provided transportation for out-of-town pupils. The total enrollment was 56.

The ladies of the church provided refreshments at the recess hour each morning.

Each day the children brought their missionary love gifts which will be sent to the American Indians in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weist and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott, Warsaw, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Herschel Small.

The MYF of the Stover Methodist Church enjoyed a hayride and wiener roast Friday evening, June 3.

Mrs. Milton Arnold is sponsor of the group.

Harry Smiley, Wichita, Kan., visited with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Wahlers. Col.

Smiley is being transferred from the Pentagon, Washington, D.C., to Moody Field, Valdosta, Ga., where he will move with his family in the near future.

Word has been received here by relatives Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gerhart, Tucson, Ariz., are the parents of a daughter born May 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bockleman and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Augilar spent Sunday in Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. Bockleman visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bockleman, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Augilar attended the wedding of Mr. Augilar's niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Jolly and family, Kansas City, spent the weekend in Stover and Versailles with Mrs. Jolly's mother, Mrs. Lena Dohrman. On Sunday they attended the Jolly family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Meyer and family in Versailles. Mrs. Nona Argenbright also spent the day in Versailles.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Martin attended the high school Alumni Banquet Saturday night, May 28, at Amoret, Mo. Ginger and Larry

Petrillo Has Several Words On Old Item

CLEVELAND (AP)—James C. Petrillo, fiery union champion of America's musicians, made an "average Joe" appeal last night in an attack on his favorite target—the 20 per cent federal amusement tax.

Calling on the nation to unite against the tax, Petrillo told a reporter:

"I want to see the return of the day when the average Joe could afford to take his wife out for supper and a dance date... The amusement tax ended all that as well as eliminating 50,000 musicians' jobs."

Petrillo, president of the 250,000-member AFL American Federation of Musicians, vowed to wage a "war of survival" against the tax in speech yesterday before 1,200 delegates to the union's 58th annual convention.

In an interview last night he said he wanted to elaborate on his stand.

"The rich guy can go out, wash caviar down with the finest champagne and dance all he wants in a private club that pays none of the tax," he declared. "The average Joe who can't afford a country club is the one who is suckered. He and the musicians are the real fall guys."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brady and Mrs. R. M. Petts attended the convention of the federation of Women's Republican Clubs of Missouri at the Kentwood Arms Hotel, in Springfield on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hunt and daughter Linda, Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Hunt, Mary Carolyn, Jack and Janet, Windsor, were recent visitors in the home of Mr. R. M. Petts. Fred and Roy are brothers of Mrs. Petts.

Rev. Morton E. Holman, pastor of the Methodist church of Camden, Mo., and Mrs. Holman and their three sons have been vacationing at White Branch for the past 10 days. Rev. Holman was guest speaker at the evening worship service at the Methodist church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Darace Eaton, Marsha and Randy are spending their vacation in California. They left Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Woirhoyle and daughter, Patty, and Miss Grace Woirhoyle are on vacation for two weeks.

Rev. Oral Van Horn left Wednesday for Pastors' School at Central College in Fayette, Mo. He will return on Friday.

4-H Club, Warsaw, met for its regular session Monday night.

Plans were made for their picnic to be June 23 with a pot-luck supper, inviting all parents as guests.

Project meetings were planned and dates set. Miss Marcia Swinney gave a demonstration of three ways to set a table.

Still Has 'Ginger'

DETROIT (AP)—At 70, Jack Clapp contends he still has years of useful activity ahead of him.

To prove it, he's going to parachute from an airplane into Lake St. Clair Sunday as a protest against his forced retirement as a painter for Detroit's public schools. Seventy is the mandatory retirement age.

Cub Scouts In 3-Ring Circus At Warsaw

By Mrs. Jane Van Horn

WARSAW — At the last Pack-meeting of the Cub Scouts of Pack 34 of Warsaw, a big three ring circus was given. The grand parade included all three of the dens. The circus was complete with many clowns who were Jimmy Van Horn, a lady clown leading a tiny dog with a log chain, Joe White, Joe Franks, James Husong, Mike Hirsh and Jerry Myers. The wild man from Africa, Jimmy Parsons gave a dance, Roger Hawley, Japanese Ballet dancer performed many special numbers, Kenney Shepardson, the magician made the invisible man disappear, Jackie Parsons, was the fat-lady, who cannot weigh because there are no scales large enough to weigh her. Ricky Bibb was snake charmer.

The animal trainer, Bubby See had no trouble with his monkey, Guy Nease with his racing motorcycle, with lion, Steven Noland, David Bybee the tiger and dog Richard Ashley. A sideshow was provided and popcorn and cold drinks were served by the dens.

No more pack meetings will be held until August.

Conviction Ends Bizarre Case Of Fake Funeral

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The bizarre case of Albert L. Paglino, charged with killing a man to set up a fake funeral for himself, came to an end last night with a first-degree murder conviction.

But even then the case took another strange twist briefly.

The Circuit Court jury in suburban Clayton returned its verdict and set Paglino's punishment at life imprisonment. His sister Mrs. Rose Fills screamed and fainted in the courtroom and had to be revived in the corridor.

Then the 29-year-old Paglino was about to be taken back to jail but he had escaped. Radio messages were sent out and deputy sheriffs rushed about with guns drawn.

But Paglino meekly appeared in the sheriff's office in the custody of jailer Rubin Sauers. As Deputy Sheriff Jack Culligan put Paglino on the elevator to return him to jail he turned for a moment and the elevator door suddenly closed.

Paglino was inside and the officer outside. The elevator then descended to the garage of the courthouse building. The door opened as Sauer approached.

"I'm Paglino," Paglino said. "I'm waiting to be taken to jail." Sauer took him to the sheriff's office.

Senate Heads Push Action On the Draft

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders moved today for quick action on extension of the peacetime draft and the separate doctor draft act, both due to expire at the end of this month.

But they delayed a decision on an appeal by President Eisenhower to rescue the administration's broad manpower reserve program, designed to swell the size of the reserve which could be called to active duty at once in event of national emergency.

Chairman Russell (D-Ga) invited opposition witnesses before the Senate Armed Services Committee for testimony on the separate laws for drafting youths from 18 to 26 years and physicians and other medical specialists up to 50 years.

Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California said discussions were under way, meanwhile, about starting the controversial reserve manpower measure through the Senate.

This measure was shelved in the House when Rep. Powell (D-NY) successfully moved to attach a provision which would forbid racial segregation in reserve and National Guard units.

Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday this reserve plan is vital to the nation's security. Claiming a good record for his ad-

Thirty-six members received the award.

Power Fails in Town

EDMONTON, Alta. (AP)—A fire cut off the water and the electricity in this city of 209,000 yesterday just as evening meals were being prepared and workmen were heading for home.

The cutoff lasted 1 hour and 21 minutes after a small fire started in the main switch gear at the powerhouse.

ministration on pledges to wipe out segregation, the President said it was an error to try to push such legislation through by "tacking it on something that is so vital to the welfare of the United States."

Powell, one of three Negro members of the House, said he thinks the President "has been ill-advised and when he thinks it over, he will say that the amendment is necessary."

Rep. Brooks (D-La) said the reserve measure is dead in the House "for the present."

Synagogue Council Says Delinquency Sign of Social Chaos

NEW YORK (AP)—The Synagogue Council of America says the wave of juvenile delinquency is a "symptom of a growing moral chaos and social disintegration."

The council, at its national meeting yesterday, said the youth crime problem "challenges every social and spiritual resource at the command of the community."

The body cited a "breakdown" in neighborhood ties and "indifference of parents in a community to the needs and problems of their own neighborhoods."

The council urged all other religious organizations to join in bringing neighborhoods under religious leadership and to "strengthen the foundations of family living."

The delegates — from Orthodox, Reform and other Jewish bodies — elected Dr. Abraham J. Feldman, of Hartford, Conn., as president for the coming year. He succeeds Dr. Norman Saltz, of New York.

Rescue Crewmen In Two-Ship Collision In English Sea Channel

RAMSGATE, England (AP)—The Swedish tanker Johannishus caught fire and was abandoned by her crew of 42 early today after a collision in the English Channel with the Panamanian freighter Buccaneer.

By dawn at least 24 survivors and one dead had been reported recovered by ships in the vicinity, about halfway between here and the Belgian coast.

However, coastal stations reported the small timber ship Gloria had rescued "a number" of seamen and was taking them to Dover.

The 10,788-ton Johannishus had 41 men and one woman aboard.

The 7,256-ton Buccaneer radioed she also had caught fire but later reported she had the blaze under control and was standing by the Swedish ship.

Another Two Steel Firms Hear Demands

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Two more of the "Big Six" basic steel producers lined up their top bargainers today to find out how much of a wage increase the CIO United Steelworkers want.

USW President David J. McDonald continued to head the union negotiators as they took their demands to Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. and Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp.

McDonald has personally directed all negotiating sessions since they began Tuesday in sessions with U.S. Steel Corp., the nation's largest producer. The union has announced it is seeking a sizeable wage increase but has given no indication of what it considers sizeable.

The 600,000 USW members in the basic steel industry now earn an average of $2.37 an hour under a two-year contract signed last June. Under the contract present negotiations are limited to wages only. The union can strike June 30 should the wage talks unexpectedly collapse.

Union and company spokesmen say there will be no discussions of the guaranteed annual wage this year.

The union presented its demands yesterday to Bethlehem Steel Corp. and to Republic Steel. Tomorrow the last of the Big Six, Inland Steel Corp., will meet with union negotiators. The Big Six employ 400,000 USW members.

The first of other, smaller steel concerns, Allegheny-Ludlum Steel Corp., entered the wage bargaining arena today.

Allegheny-Ludlum announced yesterday that it had agreed to extend pension benefits to widows or other dependents of its pensioners under a plan similar to one worked out with Bethlehem Steel a few months ago. Observers saw a possibility that other firms may make similar arrangements during the current wage talks.

The plan allows workers to sign up for lower pensions which will be continued to the survivors. Previously the pension stopped with the worker's death.

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—The cold bug is biting the bevy of beauties assembled here to compete for the title of Miss Europe.

With the judging only two days off, Finland's treacherous weather has brought sniffles and sore throats to Italy's shapely Vandesa Guida, Turkey's dark-eyed Suna Soley and vivacious Monique Lambert of France.

Nehru Reported Sold On Soviet Reception By Workers, People

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—What does Indian Prime Minister Nehru think of the reception he is getting in Moscow?

If stories from Indian newsmen accompanying him are any indication, the Russians have made an immediate favorable impression on Nehru.

The correspondent of the British-owned Statesman, which often reflects Indian Foreign Ministry opinion, wrote from Moscow:

"Nehru has seen very little of Russia as yet, but he has already been thoroughly impressed by the welcome he has received and the conspicuous deference with which he is being treated by Soviet leaders."

The Hindustan Times, which is close to Nehru's Congress party, said in a dispatch from its editor touring with Nehru: "Popular enthusiasm knew no bounds whenever he appeared in public. . . . Nehru was deeply touched by the affection shown by workers and people" of Moscow.

Easy to Live Long

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Mary M. Kelly passed her 104th birthday yesterday with the observation that she sees things more clearly now.

That's because she tossed away her spectacles when she was 103.

She has an opinion that anyone can live to be a mere 100.

"Eat plenty, see plenty of people and laugh a lot," she says. "And don't tell your true age."

Pilot Burns While Others Are Helpless

LOCKWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Screaming for help, a pilot was burned to death in the wreckage of his plane yesterday. His foot was wedged under the gas tank and bystanders, including his father, could do nothing to save him.

The pilot was Donald Beets McNab, 44, grandnephew and heir of Gavin McNab, attorney and colorful political power in San Francisco at the turn of the century. He had flown here to visit his father George Beets.

On takeoff, the plane struck a 12,000-volt power line, flipped over and burst into flames.

McNab's passenger, John Marcus, 30, was thrown free although critically burned.

The Hindustan Times, which is close to Nehru's Congress party, said in a dispatch from its editor touring with Nehru: "Popular enthusiasm knew no bounds whenever he appeared in public. . . . Nehru was deeply touched by the affection shown by workers and people" of Moscow.

Lightning Repeats

PLAINVIEW, Tex. (AP)—Lightning that accompanied Texas' most widespread thunderstorms of the year knocked out an air conditioner at Odes Simpkins' grocery store yesterday. Fifteen minutes later another lightning bolt struck the same air conditioner, this time knocking out the store's lighting system too.

Had Guarantee Of Changes In Contract

WASHINGTON — Chicago had maker Harry Lev acknowledged today he was able to "guarantee" in advance that government procurement officers with whom he was friendly would approve a change in specifications for a big Air Force cap contract.

But he insisted there was nothing wrong or strange about that. His testimony followed punitive action by the government against two of the procurement officials who have been linked with his activities.

The testimony came at a public hearing before the Senate Investigations subcommittee at which Lev, trying desperately for laughs to lighten the grim atmosphere, invited one of the senators to "be my guest" for a meal of green turtle steak. He claimed peculiar virtues for the food but did not go into detail.

Lev extended the invitation to Sen. Bender (R-OHio), who has been one of Lev's bitterest critics. The exchange got so hilarious that Bender himself laughed until he had to wipe away the tears.

It interrupted some pointed questioning by Bender in which Lev conceded that he had made "more than a million" from his profits on government contracts, and could afford turtle steak feasts in Puerto Rico.

"I would like to recommend to the senator to bring you down to Puerto Rico and actually experience yourself what it (the turtle steak) does," Lev said.

"Believe me, Sen. Bender, you wouldn't regret it."

"I don't have that kind of money," Bender observed, wiping away the tears as the crowd of spectators howled.

"It isn't expensive," Lev said. "With the permission of the government—the Senate—you could be my guest."

Motorcade For Promotion Of Centennial

Warrensburg in promotion of its Centennial Celebration July 3-9 is to send out three giant motorcades of cars and trucks filled with bearded men and costumed women. These cavalcades will visit nearby towns and rural areas in parade procession, extend greetings and entertain at stops made with square dancing and Charleston performers. A burro will be led by one of the leaders of the "Brush Brothers."

The first trip will be on Friday, June 17. Sedalia, Tipton, California, Jefferson City, Booneville, and tentatively Sweet Springs and Concordia should sufficient time be available.

William C. Tucker, editor of the Warrensburg Star-Journal, heads ideas leaving the carrying out to the Bearded Brothers and Costumed Sisters.

Lockheed to Develop Turboprop Plane For American Airlines

LOS ANGELES — Lockheed Aircraft Corp. has won a 65-million-dollar contract with its design for the first commercial turboprop transport to be built in the United States.

American Airlines announced yesterday it has placed an order for 35 of the high-speed, medium-weight planes with cruising speeds of more than 400 m.p.h. and a range of 2,000 miles.

Delivery is to start the latter part of 1958.

Awarding of the contract gives the first challenge to British leadership in the commercial jet-with-propeller field. The turboprop power plant utilizes a turbine but instead of releasing its power in pure forward thrust as a jet engine does, it uses it to turn propellers.

The new four engine Lockheed Electra seats 64, four more than are provided for on the DC7 flown by American.

Joplin Strike Over After Eleven Weeks

JOPLIN, Mo. — An eight weeks strike at the Joplin plant of Vickers, Inc., ended yesterday when production employees returned to work.

Following workers acceptance of a 12-cent package hourly increase, company officials and officers of Local 200, United Automobile Workers, A.F.L. signed a new contract.

Eight cents of the boost was effective yesterday and the other four cent hike will be effective April 1, 1956.

About 1,000 workers are employed at the plant.

Menon Reaches Canada

Funeral services for Mrs. Florence Irene Solon, who died Tuesday at her home, 1100 West Third, will be at 9 a.m. Friday at Sacred Heart Church. The Rev. A. J. Brunswick will officiate.

Pallbearers will be Tom Keating, B. J. Bahner, Fred Spimpson, Claude Boul, Emmet Sullivan and S. J. Timborous.

Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery.

Charles W. Laughlin Funeral

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Emma for Charles W. Laughlin, 60, killed Wednesday afternoon west of Sweet Springs in an automobile accident. The Rev. William Hepling will officiate.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, Sweet Springs.

Mr. Laughlin was born March 25, 1895, at Sweet Springs, son of the late Jack and Willie Jane Laughlin, and spent his entire life in that community. His wife preceded him in death, leaving surviving a daughter, Mrs. Erlene Blythe, Burlington, Wis., a grand daughter, Margaret Ann Blythe, and two sisters, Mrs. Claude Blythe, Sweet Springs, and Mrs. Jasper Kenable, Neosho, Mo.

The body is at the James Funeral Home, Concordia.

Mrs. Lorraine Garner Services

Funeral services for Mrs. Lorraine Garner, 33, wife of Emery J. Garner, 1312 East Broadway, who died at the Bothwell Hospital Wednesday morning, will be held at the First Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Friday.

The Rev. Thomas W. Croxton, pastor, will officiate.

Pallbearers will be Orie Hammond, Emmett Cramer, Carl Ellis, Roy Greer, Cleots and Gail Brandt. Burial will be in the Sunset Hill Cemetery at Warrensburg.

The body is at the Ewing Funeral Home where it will remain until the hour of the service.

Youths Admit Taking Car After Holdups In St. Louis Area

POPULAR BLUFF — Sheriff Bill Brent of Butler County said today two St. Louis youths who have admitted stealing a car after two holdups are being held here for St. Louis authorities.

The sheriff identified the pair as Paul Leonard, 18, and General David Parrish, 20, who said they were employed at a restaurant.

They were arrested last night in an auto repair shop here after state police had investigated reports of an accident on U.S. 53 near here.

The car overturned after missing a curve. Both youths escaped injury but one of two girls with the pair was treated for minor cuts at a hospital and released.

Sheriff Brent said the girls were released after the youth told him the girls had no knowledge of the holdup and stolen car.

Brent said the youths admitted three recent holdups prior to last night, when they admitted taking $20 and $28 in separate holdups, then stealing the car.

Threaten Sympathy Strikes in Malaya

SINGAPORE — Sympathy strikes by 70,000 factory, transport and dock workers threatened today as Singapore's government struggled to end three walkouts and prevent Communist-inspired rioting.

The 40,000-member Singapore factory and shipworkers union warned it would call a stoppage within 48 hours unless a 40-day-old strike of 1,300 Singapore harbor clerks is settled.

The leader of the union, Lim Chin Siong, is a Legislative Assembly member from the extreme leftist People's Action party. After a strike sparked rioting May 12 in which four persons were killed and 36 injured, Colonial Secretary W. A. C. Goode charged Lim's party was "ridiculed with Communists backseats drivers."

Jazz Enthusiasts Find Concert Site

NEWPORT, R.I. — The Newport Jazz Festival has finally found a spot for its three concerts next month after getting less than enthusiastic response at two proposed sites.

The festival originally was scheduled for the Newport Casino, where it held its first concerts last year. Casino officials, however, refused to permit its return.

Festival officials next sought to hold the affair at Belcourt, the former Belmont estate on Bellevue Avenue.

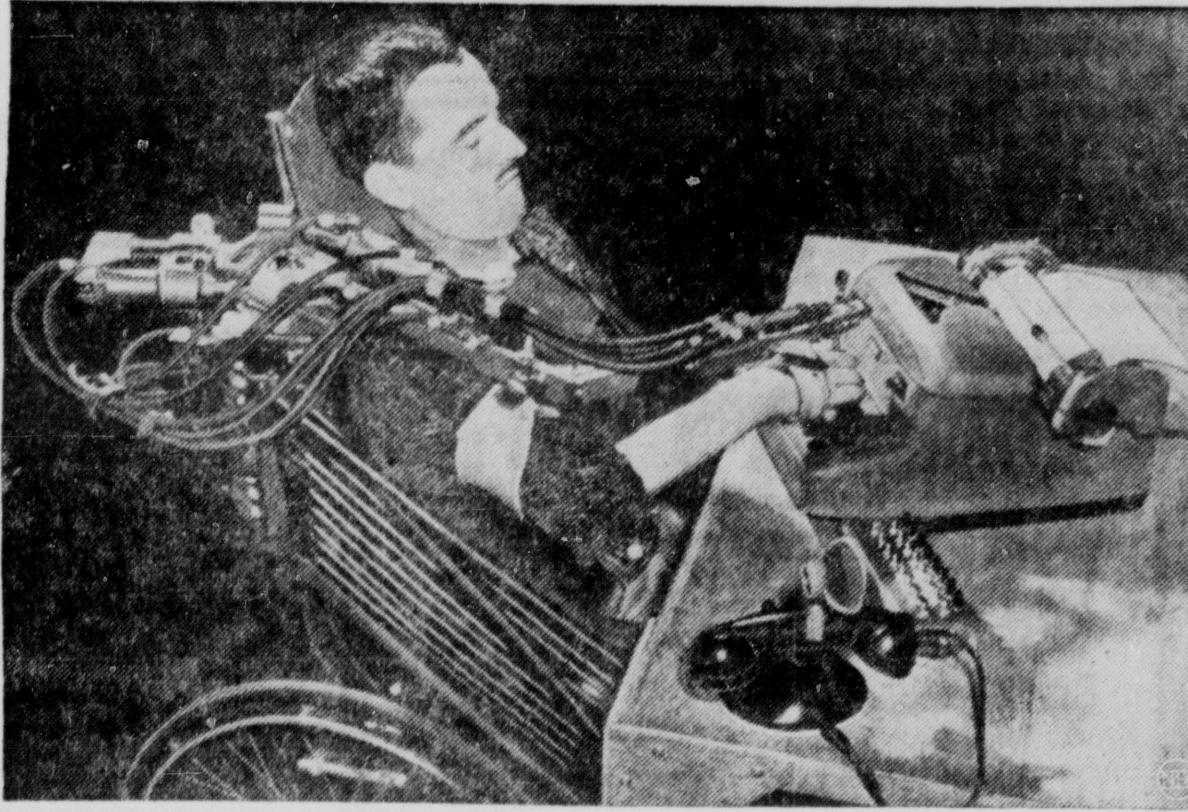

Summer colonists, however, said they would protest to city officials.

The jazz enthusiasts went before the City Council last night and won permission to hold the concerts in Freeb Park July 15, 16, and 17.

First Democrat Is Elected Since 1904

HANOVER, N.H. — Hanover has elected a Democratic representative to the New Hampshire Legislature for the first time since 1904. Clothing merchant James W. Campion Jr., defeated Republican Robert S. Monahan 503-465 yesterday in a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Edith P. Atkins.

In Other Courts

The trial of Lee Bush, Nelson, charged with first degree murder in the fatal shooting of last April 25 of Henry Arthur Kuntz, Nelson resident, was set for Monday, Oct. 24, in the circuit court at Bonneville by Judge Dimmitt Hoffman, S.D.

This case is in the Bonneville circuit court because the shooting occurred across the line in Cooper County from Saline County. Mr. Bush is at liberty on bail.

A damage suit has been filed in the Saline County circuit court at Marshall by John B. Lawson, 13-year-old boy of Sweet Springs, by next friend against Chester Hollingsworth, also of Sweet Springs.

The petition sets forth that last April 14 Lawson was riding a horse near the intersection of Locust and Ruby streets in Sweet Springs and that the defendant so carelessly and recklessly drove his car as to collide with horse, throwing the rider to the ground. The plaintiff asks $331.40 for alleged personal injuries.

Dr. Lloyd L. Tate, director of health and hygiene for the St. Louis Board of Education, said yesterday about 70 first and second graders in the Elias Michael School for Crippled Children and Gualaduan School for Deaf Children received the second shots of Salk polio vaccine.

Dr. Tate said the shots Monday. Dr. Tate said vaccine left from the first round of shots was used. The vaccine for second shots in the entire school program has not yet arrived.

The train crew reported the accident when it stopped at Horace, Kan. Searchers found the body about 10 p.m.

The only clue to the identity of the man was a check made out to John Tilley and drawn on the Cosgrove Hotel at Vernal, Utah. Railroad officials said the man had boarded the train at Denver and had a ticket to Williamson, W.Va.

Physically Handicapped Receive Polio Shots

ST. LOUIS — Physically handicapped children in St. Louis public schools have received their second shots of Salk polio vaccine.

Dr. Lloyd L. Tate, director of health and hygiene for the St. Louis Board of Education, said yesterday about 70 first and second graders in the Elias Michael School for Crippled Children and Gualaduan School for Deaf Children received the second shots of Salk polio vaccine.

Dr. Tate said vaccine left from the first round of shots was used. The vaccine for second shots in the entire school program has not yet arrived.

Blast or Tremor Is Thought to Be Jet

BELLEVILLE, Ill. — What many Belleville residents thought was a blast or a slight earth tremor today may have been the noise of a jet fighter circling for a landing.

A spokesman for McDonnell Aircraft Corp. in St. Louis said an F-101 "Voodoo" jet plane landed at Lambert-St. Louis Field about 9:40 a.m. today, about the time persons here reported hearing a loud noise of a blast, plus a tremor.

The spokesman said it is possible for such a noise to be heard if a jet plane loses altitude rapidly even though it doesn't break the sound barrier.

Weekly Insect Report—

Army Worm Harm Slows Down in Central State Area

BY STIRLING KYD
Extension Entomologist
and GEORGE W. THOMAS
Survey Entomologist

ARMYWORMS: Some damage continues in the central third of the state although activity has slowed a little.

Heads of barley are still being cut off; some heads of wheat and rye are being cut but more generally the heads and portions of the grain are partially destroyed. Increasing injury to wheat may be expected for the next few days.

Undercover crops of legumes and grasses in small grains are either heavily damaged or destroyed in many fields even though the small grain is not being damaged.

Parasites are now destroying considerable numbers of the larger worms. Both wasps and flies are numerous. With the return of warm weather, these parasites are expected to largely eliminate the armyworm problem during the coming week.

Control measures may still be necessary on wheat and some few late barley fields. Just keep in mind that barley, an open type grain, should not be sprayed later than 7 days prior to harvest to avoid excessive residues.

ENGLISH GRAIN APHID: We are still of the opinion that very, very few wheat fields need spraying for this aphid. Research workers claim these aphids cause no appreciable damage after the grain passes the milk stage. Most wheat in the infested areas is well beyond this stage of damage.

Actually the numbers of aphids are dropping quite rapidly due to ladybird beetles, aphid lions, wasps, fungus disease and return of warm weather.

Any field, still in the milk stage, with an average of 35 or more aphids per head throughout the field, should be sprayed with  $\frac{1}{4}$  pound parathion applied only by an experienced operator.

GRASSHOPPERS: It is hard to discuss the hopper situation without painting a very black picture for agriculture throughout most of the state. Populations are tremendous, ranging from 20 to over 200 per square yard of the hatching beds. The peak of the hatch of the large, yellow hopper has passed in the southern half of the state and is expected to be reached in the northern half of the state during the coming week.

Do not expect the weather to aid materially in reducing hopper numbers.

Damage to alfalfa, soybeans and garden crops has already started. Second cutting alfalfa is being heavily damaged in several areas. These alfalfa fields should be sprayed immediately but be sure there are 21 days between treatment and cutting.

Hoppers are beginning to spread out from the hatching beds in the southern half of the state. This coming week will probably be the last opportunity for the most economical and practical method of control.

SPRAY THE HATCHING BEDS... in the south. The northern half of the state has approximately 10 days to 2 weeks to get this spraying done.

Even with the widespread, heavy numbers of hoppers that we have, effective and economical control CAN be had if operations are begun at once. Nothing short of a miracle will allow us to escape severe crop damage by ravaging hordes of hoppers if nature is allowed to take its course.

CLOVER LEAF WEEVIL: Some fields of alfalfa are being heavily damaged by adults feeding on the new growth. These adults are  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch long, brownish to grayish, with a narrow, pale yellow stripe along the side margins of the wings. They are the adults of the green leaf weevil grub that eats the leaves of alfalfa and clovers in March and April.

From all indications, 1 to  $\frac{1}{2}$  ounces of dieldrin or  $\frac{1}{4}$  pounds toxaphene per acre is giving control of this pest as well as grasshoppers.

Consider Sending Church Emissaries For Talks in Russia

NEW YORK — The National Council of Churches is considering the possibility of sending American church leaders to Russia to exchange views with Soviet Union clergy.

The council's 250-member General Board yesterday voted to study such a move. Final decision will rest with the council's Policy and Strategy Committee.

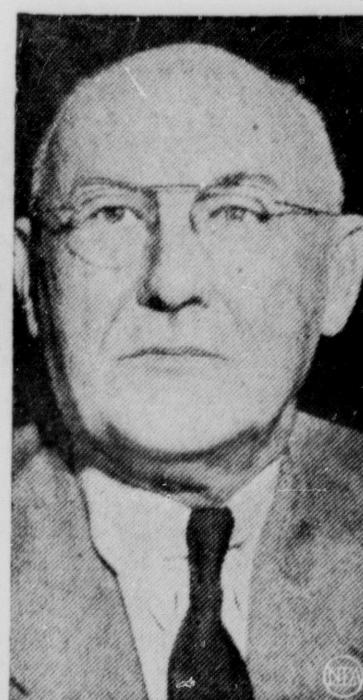

The council is a federation of 30 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox denominations with 35 $\frac{1}{2}$  million members.

In the Soviet Union, Christianity's main arm is the Russian Orthodox Church. Baptists and some other Protestant denominations also have churches there.

The proposed conference, the board said, would be aimed at achieving "a just and durable peace."

The General Board also approved plans for financing construction of a 17-story, 14-million-dollar united church center on Riverside Drive, Manhattan.

Dick Haymes Applies For US Citizenship; Admits He Is Late

RENO — Dick Haymes, 36, crooning husband of actress Rita Hayworth, picked up an application for citizenship here yesterday. He told reporters, "I should have applied for citizenship a long time ago."

The Argentine-born singer was plagued by deportation proceedings after he made a trip to Hawaii in 1953 to woo Miss Hayworth.

Last week a federal court ruled

Haymes did not lose his chance for citizenship because of the trip to Hawaii; the court holding the islands are a geographical part of the United States.

Processing of the crooner's citizenship application may be held up if the government appeals the decision that he cannot be deported.

CONCRETE PAVEMENTS lower street lighting costs

A recent study of street lighting costs based on an actual municipal rate shows it cost $483 per year to provide adequate lighting for 1,000 feet of dark-surface street. It cost only $283.80 per year to light the same area of light-colored concrete street surface—a saving to taxpayers of $199.20, or more than 40 per cent.

In addition to savings in street lighting costs, concrete's high light reflectance makes night-time driving easier and safer. There are fewer chances for accidents because pedestrians and obstructions are visible farther. So, for safety and economy, insist on concrete streets.

ANY airline pilot will tell you that one big reason for the modern plane's greatly increased cruising range aloft is the variable pitch propeller.

To get off the ground, of course, the pilot needs plenty of acceleration, for take-off and climb. So his propellers must "bite" into air at a certain angle for utmost performance.

But once the plane is at cruising altitude, great power acceleration is no longer needed—fuel efficiency is. So the pilot switches the pitch of his propeller blades to high-economy angle—and gets a lot more mileage from the fuel in his tanks.

That's why Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* is such a sensation across the nation.

For the same aviation principle that brings this two-way magic to the modern plane is now found in the twenty propeller-like blades whirling in oil inside the Dynaflow unit.

Just by pressing the gas pedal way down, you switch the pitch and get instantaneous getaway response or safety-surge acceleration.

Just by easing up on the pedal, you change the pitch to high-economy angle—and get new and better gas mileage in all normal driving and cruising.

It's a spectacular and sensible achievement—this new Dynaflow Drive—a brand-new thrill and a brand-new thriftiness.

And with it goes the might of record-high V8 power—and the level luxury of Buick's all-coil-spring ride—and the spacious roominess of Buick's broad interiors—and the host of other advanced features that add to Buick's brimming value.

Come in and try what is very definitely the performance thrill of the year—and see for yourself why Buick sales are soaring to all-time best-seller highs.

List of American Soldiers Who Stayed Behind Dwindles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The list is dwindling.
Once the Communists said there were 23 American soldiers captured in the Korean War who refused to go home after the armistice.
Two since have returned. Two more are reported wanting to get home soon. At least six others have signified in letters a desire to return at some future time. One has died.

That accounts for almost half of them.

Two returned from Korea before their 21 companions left for Red China with promises of education and good jobs.

First to come back was Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson, of Big Stone Gap, Va., on Oct. 20, 1953. He's now serving a 10-year term in an Army stockade at New Cumberland, Pa. An Army court-martial convicted him of informing on other prisoners.

The other, Cpl. Claude J. Batchelor, Kermet, Tex., yielded to the written persuasions of his Japanese wife. He was given a life sentence by court-martial on similar charges but it later was reduced to 20 years. He came back Dec. 31, 1953.

Letters to relatives indicate that two more now want to return from Red China. They are Cpl. Otho G. Bell, Olympia, Wash., and Cpl. Lewie W. Griggs, Jacksonville, Tex. Both are believed to be in South China or going there soon.

A letter from Bell to his wife suggested he would have tried to return sooner but he believed that Dickenson and Batchelor were executed.

The Chinese Red Cross notified relatives of Sgt. Rufus O. Douglas, San Angelo, Tex., June 15, 1954, that he had died the week before of "a rheumatic heart disorder with complications." His aunt, Mrs. R. C. Howard, of Texon, Tex., said he never had heart trouble and "I think the complications were caused by them—the Reds."

Six others once had written relatives they wanted to return home, but that was before they announced they were refusing repatriation. Some of the six still may harbor that wish. They are:

Sgt. Albert C. Belhomme, Ashland, Pa.; Sgt. Scott L. Rush, Marietta, Ohio; Pvt. James G. Veneris, Hawthorne, Calif.; Sgt. Harold H. Webb, Fort Pierce and Jacksonville, Fla.; Pfc. Morris R. Wills, Fort Ann, N.Y., and Cpl. William A. Cowart, Monticello, Ark.

The others still in Red China are:

Cpl. Clarence C. Adams, Memphis, Tenn. His mother, Mrs. Gladys Peoples said he was deeply religious and must have been tricked.

Sgt. Howard G. Adams, Corsicana, Tex.

Sgt. Richard G. Corden, East Providence, R. I. He was quoted by Peiping radio April 30, 1954, as saying Red China's industrial progress "fills me with inspiration and great affection for the Chinese people."

Cpl. John R. Dunn, Baltimore. Pfc. Samuel David Hawkins, Oklahoma City. A letter last November said he was studying world politics at Peiping university.

Cpl. Arlie H. Pate, Carbondale, Ill., whose father Howard Pate has said, "When he comes to his senses, we want him to come back like he always wanted to and help me on the farm."

Cpl. Lowell D. Skinner, Akron, Ohio, whose mother Mrs. Brady Skinner believes "either malaria or some terrible illness has weakened his mind."

Sgt. Lawrence V. Sullivan, Omaha, whose father Ralph Sullivan said "he would have to be mentally deranged" to make the choice to stay.

Pfc. Richard R. Tennesen, Alden, Minn., whose mother Mrs. Portia M. Howe flew to Tokyo in a vain effort to try to persuade him to come home. Last December he wrote he was working in a paper factory south of Peiping.

Cpl. William C. White, Plummer, Ark., son of Mrs. Mattie Gorman.

Cpl. Aaron P. Wilson, Urana, La.

Heat Wave Too Much For Arizona Snakes

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Arizona's weather was too hot even for some of its native reptiles yesterday.

Dr. Herbert L. Stahnke, director of the Poisonous Animals Research Laboratory at nearby Arizona State College at Tempe, put four healthy Arizona coral snakes in glass cages and started out for his weekly television show in Phoenix, where the temperature reached 112.

When Stahnke checked the cages just before going on the air, he found the four reptiles dead—victims of heat prostration.

The show went on, with two durable rattlesnakes acting as standins.

Humphrey Attacks GOP Doubts, Fears

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) said today the Eisenhower administration's approach to Big Four talks is marked by "doubts, fears and hesitations that a great nation like ours should not exhibit."

Humphrey and Sen. Capehart (R-Ind.), Foreign Relations Committee members, in separate interviews urged President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles to set forth a clear and complete agenda for the projected "summit" meeting.

Russia must be confronted with promises Stalin made to the United States and Britain at the Big Three wartime Yalta conference, the senators said.

"We got promises and agreements from Russia at Yalta that we should now insist on holding them to," Capehart said.

Humphrey attributed largely to "domestic politics" the "doubts and fears" he said have been repeatedly expressed by Eisenhower and Dulles about possible gains from the meeting which the West has proposed be held at Geneva in mid-July.

Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday: "Let's don't expect too much from the first one, but let us do hope that we have opened up a new . . . atmosphere in the whole business, and maybe then our work will be fruitful instead of constantly frustrating."

Humphrey said the administration is "carefully laying the groundwork in case things don't go well. They can then exonerate themselves by saying, 'We told you so.'"

He said Eisenhower and Dulles appear "scared to face up to the questions that need to be and must be discussed," and he continued:

"We must seize the initiative on this conference and we must go into it loaded down with good ideas thoroughly thought out. Of course we should alert people to the possibility that the conference may fail. But we should not allow pessimism to throw a blanket of doubt over the whole conference."

Bag Collecting Pays Off for Mary Shults

Mary Joan Shults, 253 East Jackson, has been named a first-prize winner in the Frito Midwest Co. bag-collecting contest, held during April and May. For having collected more Fritos products bags than anyone else in this area, Mary Joan will receive a $200, all-expense-paid week's vacation at famous Greystone Ranch in the Colorado Rockies. This is the ranch which was visited by the White House Staff last summer. Mary Joan will leave for Greystone on June 19, along with 99 other top contestants from Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska, aboard special buses. The winners range from 8 to 16 years in age.

Stock Car Track Is Slow In Tuesday's CMRA Races

Modified Stock Car racing held Tuesday at Sweet Springs was slowed down considerably due to a muddy track, a result of overwatering before race time. The time trials which were won in the unusually slow time of 23.5 testified to the slowness of the oval. Trials were won by Tubby Mast of Moberly.

Joe Dennis was on his way to winning his third trophy in Sweet Springs in the Trophy Dash, when he lost control of his car, skidded over the track and gave up position to Tubby Mast, who took the trophy.

Only two heat races were held, as there were only 16 cars entered in the affair, so the third heat was made up of non-money winners from the first and second heats.

The feature race was held before the consolation with 13 cars entered and only six crossing the starting line at the finish, all money winners, as six places are awarded money in the feature.

The last race, the consolation, was run off with all the non-money winners of the feature race.

Racing Results: slow heat—First-Roy Hibbard; second-Dick Oswald and third—Vernon Robinson.

Second Heat - First - Harold

Rod and Gun Club Holds Sport Show

In celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Bonnville Rod and Gun Club a gala Sportsman Show will be held on July 2 through July 4.

A number of contests and shows will be held during the celebration to which members of various Rod and Gun clubs, Boots and Saddle clubs and sports organizations throughout the state will be invited.

Plans for the show and invitations to attend and participate have been mailed to a number of organizations in Sedalia, who are expected to take part in the show.

Some of the events to be highlighted by the sportsmen are a horse show, dog show, model airplane contest, and archery contests.

During the three-day affair there will be parades in which local sport associations are to take part, a giant barbecue, a fireworks display and a water carnival at the lake located at the Bonnville Rod and Gun Club.

Those interested in participating in any phase of this show may contact Herb Blank, chairman of the club and she show committee.

Oakie Learns Ways to Steal Scenes on TV

HOLLYWOOD — That veteran scene stealer Jack Oakie will be up to his old tricks tonight when he appears on CBS' Showtime. But he's had to learn some new strategy for TV.

Oakie, a former Sedalian, is a cousin of Mrs. Lula R. Human, 231 South Moniteau and Mrs. Fred Lang, 907 West Broadway. He left Sedalia when he was ten years old and has returned several times to visit relatives.

Earlier in the week Mrs. Human received an article from the St. Louis Post, which told of Oakie's recent marriage to actress Vickie Horn. He was previously married to Vinita Vorden, who was killed several years ago in an airplane crash.

Mrs. Human said also she received a letter from Oakie inviting her to visit him in California and said also that if she was unable to make the trip he would try to visit her in Sedalia this fall.

Oakie is enacting a scene from "Burlesque," which he performed earlier in the season. "I didn't know they had retakes in TV too," he cracked.

But he's just as happy the scene is being repeated. Reason: he gets to uphold his honor as a scene stealer.

"I made a mistake the first time," he remarked analytically. "I was over in a corner of the hotel room dancing with Dan Dailey. I didn't realize the camera was going to cut to the door, where Dick Foran was coming in."

"This time I'll be over by that door. Foran will have to shove me aside to get through."

TULIP-TIME — Esther Williams, movie swimming star, and her husband, Ben Gage, visit a Dutch bulb field with a native girl wearing costume of fishing village of Volendam.

Yes, the word "honor" is used in connection with scene stealing. Although the craft has criminal connotations, it is both ancient and honorable. It's the scene stealers who liven the show.

"Oh, we used to have a ball in the old days," Oakie reminisced between rehearsals. "We tried to think of new ways to get closeups. One of my favorite tricks was shifting a drink from one hand to another between scenes."

"When they ran the rushes, they saw I had the glass in one hand for one scene, then in the other. So they had to shoot a closeup of me."

"I used to have fun with Ned Sparks, who was one of the great scene stealers. The only way I could top him was to keep him off balance by pushing him. Finally he blew up and said, 'Keep your blinky-blank hands off me.'

Oakie explained why he had to learn new tricks for TV: "In pictures, we kept our eye on the cutter. You could usually devise ways to make him cut to you. But in TV, the director is King. If he doesn't see you, he won't cut to you."

Five Policemen Are Summoned In Theft Case

CHICAGO — Five suburban policemen were summoned today before the Cook County (Chicago) grand jury in connection with stealing an estimated $800 of merchandise from a suburban supermarket.

Three of the five policemen constitute the entire law enforcement agency of Norridge, a suburb west of Chicago. The other two policemen are from neighboring River Grove.

They were released last night after being questioned by State's Atty. John Gutknecht. He said the five admitted looting the Jewel Food Store in Norridge early last Friday.

Directed to appear before the grand jury were Police Chief Raymond H. Peters, 29; Patrolmen Herman Marchel, 26, and Richard Potempa, 30, of Norridge; and Patrolmen Clarence Herman, 36, and Frank Kowalski, 39, of River Grove.

Gutknecht said the men denied breaking into the store. He quoted the policemen as saying they found the door of the store shattered when they went there to investigate a reported burglary. They helped themselves to cigarettes and hose.

A volunteer police force was established in Norridge after the three regular officers were suspended.

"After that it was astounding the way we were recognized wherever we went," Gower said. "It also gave a big boost to our personal appearances."

"After the TV series we played the Riviera across the Hudson from New York and went next to the Mocambo in Hollywood, and it was there we began to get offers for movies."

Since then the Champions have been featured in seven major pictures—five for MGM and one each for Paramount and Columbia. Their latest was "Jupiter's Darling" for MGM.

Meanwhile, they have made only three TV appearances. Two were on Ed Sullivan's Toast of the Town, first in a telecast on their life story, and then in another devoted to Columbia Pictures. Their other performance was in a Video Theater play.

Champions Adapt Musical On Television

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK — Marge and Gower Champion, who were among TV's earliest stars and then danced their way to film fame, will return to home screens soon.

The Champions are adapting their current Broadway musical production "Three for Tonight" for a one-hour telecast on CBS' new Wednesday night drama hour June 22. And they're considering offers from both CBS and NBC for three or four color spectacles during the fall and winter.

Marge and Gower both appeared in plays and movies before they decided to become a dancing and marital partnership in 1947 but played as a team only in night clubs until their TV debut in Max Liebman's Broadway Revue series in 1948.

The show, often called TV's first spectacular, brought instant national recognition to the Champions and two other relatively unknown performers named Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca.

"After that it was astounding the way we were recognized wherever we went," Gower says. "It also gave a big boost to our personal appearances."

"After the TV series we played the Riviera across the Hudson from New York and went next to the Mocambo in Hollywood, and it was there we began to get offers for movies."

The commission asked also for a 30 per cent increase in its fund for atomic weapons, for a total of $21 million dollars. Most of the money, the subcommittee was told, "is necessary as a result of increases in number of weapons scheduled for production."

Sue Vivian Blaine

LOS ANGELES — A $375,500 suit has been filed by two TV producers against actress Vivian Blaine and her husband, charging that she failed to appear in a series of video films.

Meanwhile, they have made only three TV appearances. Two were on Ed Sullivan's Toast of the Town, first in a telecast on their life story, and then in another devoted to Columbia Pictures. Their other performance was in a Video Theater play.

More Wet Weather Due Across US From Rockies to Atlantic

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More wet weather was the outlook today for broad areas from the Rockies eastward to the Atlantic Coast.

Showery weather continued in the Northern Plains through sections of Texas and Oklahoma and in a belt from Wisconsin, Illinois and Kentucky eastward across the Appalachians to the middle Atlantic states and southern New England.

Heavy rain fell yesterday in western and central Oklahoma and in Texas. Tornadoes whipped many areas, with small tornadoes south of Waco, Tex., and north of Lorena, Tex. No injuries were reported. Up to 3 inches of rain fell in some sections of Texas. In the East, Philadelphia reported nearly 1 inch of rain.

The early season heat wave in the far Southwest continued with temperatures soaring to 118 degrees yesterday in the desert region.

Cosmic rays create radioactive carbon dioxide in the air which is absorbed by all living things and makes possible the dating of the death of any once living material which died less than 45,000 years ago through measurements of the disintegration.

AEC Requests Cash to Speed Plane Building

WASHINGTON — Th Atomic Energy Commission, hinting that a "new approach" may have eased the way toward building atomic-powered airplanes, has asked funds to speed up its work on the project.

Testimony released last night by a House Appropriations subcommittee quoted AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss that "experimental results warrant a sharp intensification and expansion of these efforts."

No details of the reported new approach were made public, but Strauss said he was "greatly encouraged" by the progress made. One major problem has been the development of a power plant light enough to fly.

For work on that and other reactor projects, the AEC asked $134 million dollars — one third more than its current reactor budget. The money will be used also to develop power plants for Navy surface ships and peacetime electric plants, and to stimulate private development of peaceful atomic energy.

The commission asked also for a 30 per cent increase in its fund for atomic weapons, for a total of $21 million dollars. Most of the money, the subcommittee was told, "is necessary as a result of increases in number of weapons scheduled for production."

Meanwhile, they have made only three TV appearances. Two were on Ed Sullivan's Toast of the Town, first in a telecast on their life story, and then in another devoted to Columbia Pictures. Their other performance was in a Video Theater play.

Norman and Irving Pincus brought the suit yesterday against Miss Blaine and Manny G. Frank, a theatrical agent, contending that after they spent $75,000 on a pilot film, Miss Blaine refused to complete the contract.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — From Neuilly, France, came a letter addressed to Monsieur le Gouverneur Thomas B. Stanley of Virginia. After "respectful greetings" it requested payment of a $100 bond and 20 coupons issued by the Confederate States of America in 1863.

In the absence of the governor State Treasurer Jess Dillon wrote that (1) Virginia could not be responsible for bonds of the whole Confederacy and (2) that even if the state had issued them Federal and State Constitutions prohibit payment of any issued in 1863.

Early Explorers Hunted Ore
But Definitely Wrong Kinds

By HAL BOYLE

RUIDOSO, N. M.—Leaves from a touring notebook:

Francisco Vasquez Coronado, one of old New Mexico's earliest tourists, made a major mistake 415 years ago when he set out on the first great treasure hunt through this territory.

He didn't bring along a Geiger counter.

Coronado, his heart lusting for loot, spent two fruitless years searching for the golden streets and jeweled towers of the fabled seven cities of Cibola. The expedition, one of the great land explorations of history, was a financial flop. Coronado found seven dusty Indian villages but no gold.

He searched for the wrong metal. He should have been looking for uranium.

Uranium fever has swept the Southwest as gold fever did in other centuries.

"I don't know of anyone today who is actively prospecting for gold," said a resident. "But there are thousands who are looking for uranium."

A visitor gets the impression that half the motorists and pedestrians he meets on hill trails are wearing hearing aids.

"They aren't ordinary hearing aids," he is told. "Those people are listening for uranium."

City dwellers spend their weekends seeking the clicking hidden wealth. Tourists arrive with Geiger counters in their suit cases, hoping to find a fortune on their vacations.

This is the favorite local gag: "The quickest way to make money is to buy a piece of uranium and go out and find all the Geiger counters the prospectors have lost."

However, you don't have to go out in the hills yourself to hope for a profit from the uranium rush. Some automobile dealers are offering 1,000 free shares of uranium stock with each car sale.

All a lazy man has to do is buy a new car—and wait for his uranium dividends to roll in. So far it has been a long wait. Uranium has turned out to be as scarce as—well, as scarce as uranium.

But even private flyers have installed special equipment in their planes so they can look for the precious metal while on routine business flights.

The Apache Indians, hitherto so jealous of any encroachment that they have forbidden overnight camping on their sprawling 460,536-acre reservation, opened it to uranium prospecting last week for the first time.

Prospectors for a fee of $200 each can search up to six months on the reservation and lease 20 acres of any area in which they discover ore.

"A survey by the Atomic Energy Commission showed two likely uranium deposit sites on the reservation," said Wendell Chino, president of the tribal business committee and distant kinsman of Geronimo, the last great Apache war chief.

The Apaches are naturally hopeful that uranium will make them as wealthy as did the Indians of Oklahoma. Their reservation borders the White Sands proving grounds.

But the Apaches, who have graduated from the stone age to the atomic era in half a century, are content to let the white man, who put them on their reservation, carry the burden of discovery.

"All we insist on are our rights," said Chino, his eyes twinkling.

So the grave-faced Apaches patiently tend their cattle as the new impudent pale-faced Coronados loil over mesa and mountain in quest of the pale gold of a new age.

The Indians figure that, no matter how the uranium boom turns out, they can't lose. It's a comfortable feeling for them. They haven't enjoyed anything so much since the buffalo days.

The Hindu flood story resembles that of the Christians and the Hindu Noah is named Manu.

"They aren't ordinary hearing aids," he is told. "Those people are listening for uranium."

City dwellers spend their weekends seeking the clicking hidden wealth. Tourists arrive with Geiger counters in their suit cases, hoping to find a fortune on their vacations.

This is the favorite local gag: "The quickest way to make money is to buy a piece of uranium and go out and find all the Geiger counters the prospectors have lost."

However, you don't have to go out in the hills yourself to hope for a profit from the uranium rush. Some automobile dealers are offering 1,000 free shares of uranium stock with each car sale.

All a lazy man has to do is buy a new car—and wait for his uranium dividends to roll in. So far it has been a long wait. Uranium has turned out to be as scarce as—well, as scarce as uranium.

But even private flyers have installed special equipment in their planes so they can look for the precious metal while on routine business flights.

The Apache Indians, hitherto so jealous of any encroachment that they have forbidden overnight camping on their sprawling 460,536-acre reservation, opened it to uranium prospecting last week for the first time.

Prospectors for a fee of $200 each can search up to six months on the reservation and lease 20 acres of any area in which they discover ore.

"A survey by the Atomic Energy Commission showed two likely uranium deposit sites on the reservation," said Wendell Chino, president of the tribal business committee and distant kinsman of Geronimo, the last great Apache war chief.

The Apaches are naturally hopeful that uranium will make them as wealthy as did the Indians of Oklahoma. Their reservation borders the White Sands proving grounds.

But the Apaches, who have graduated from the stone age to the atomic era in half a century, are content to let the white man, who put them on their reservation, carry the burden of discovery.

"All we insist on are our rights," said Chino, his eyes twinkling.

So the grave-faced Apaches patiently tend their cattle as the new impudent pale-faced Coronados loil over mesa and mountain in quest of the pale gold of a new age.

The Indians figure that, no matter how the uranium boom turns out, they can't lose. It's a comfortable feeling for them. They haven't enjoyed anything so much since the buffalo days.

The Hindu flood story resembles that of the Christians and the Hindu Noah is named Manu.

"They aren't ordinary hearing aids," he is told. "Those people are listening for uranium."

Community Church Had Picnic Sunday

By Miss Mary E. Tevebaugh

HOUSTONIA — The Community Church held a picnic and vespers services at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tolson Sunday night. About 75 attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whitehead were guests of his father, Crawford Whitehead, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Martin and sons were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Martin. Mrs. Nadine Moore, Sedalia, was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Finis Nicholas, Miss Della Jones and Mrs. McCleary, Sedalia, visited Miss Ella Wilson and other friends here Saturday.

Pour milk over poached eggs on toast.

Milk soups can be made with a variety of vegetables, used singly or in combinations. For example: asparagus, beans, cauliflower, celery, corn, onions, peas, potatoes, spinach, tomatoes, turnips. Chowders with oysters or other fish, ham or chicken or turkey are additional possibilities.

One dish meal recipes include many opportunities to use milk in main dishes. So do most easer-dishes, including cheese custard and cheese fondue. If meat or fish loaves, milk can well be used as the liquid. Made with a medium-thick white sauce, many creamed dishes get  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup milk per serving into a meal; such dishes include creamed chicken, eggs, and dried beef.

Vegetables can be similarly creamed in white sauce, and scalloped vegetables baked in white sauce are all the better for the milk flavor.

Desserts bring milk to the table in unlimited ways. Cream pies—chocolate, butterscotch and others—and pumpkin and custard pies belong on this list. Also milk sherberts, and custards baked or soft, puddings—bread, cornstarch, junket, rice—and Bavarian creams.

Pudding and pie mixes will carry more milk into meals if made with two or more parts evaporated milk to one part of water instead of the usual one-to-one dilution of evaporated milk.

Good drinks made with milk fit into meals and into between-meal and end-of-day snacks.

Cold, flavored beverages include eggnogs and milkshakes flavored with chocolate, vanilla, spices, molasses, maple or banana, straw-

Rev. E. Benz To Pastorate, Green Ridge

By Mrs. Russell Kendrick

KNOB NOSTER — The Rev. and Mrs. Ervin Eugene Benz, and daughter Carol, moved to Green Ridge recently, where Mr. Benz will assume duties as pastor of the Baptist Church the third Sunday in June. The Rev. Benz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Benz, Knob Noster, and has been attending CMSC in Warrensburg. He has formerly held pastoral duties at a church near Higginsville and Pleasant Valley church, both in the Knob Noster area.

Knob Noster members OES attended the Guiding Star, Green Ridge Fellowship meeting last Tuesday night when the Fraternal Chain was presented by the Cole Camp Chapter. Those attending from Knob Noster were: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McKeegan, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hall, Mrs. R. B. Burke, Mrs. Wallace Summerskill, Mrs. Raymond DeFrain, Mrs. Everett Wing and Mrs. James Green, Mrs. Gene Patrick of LaMonte and Mrs. Arthur Perkins of Wood River, Ill., also attended.

Mrs. Lida Westbrook entertained with a family dinner Sunday at her home in Houstonia. Guests were: Mrs. H. H. Smiley; Mrs. Grover Coats; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smiley and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Covey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neitzert and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Neitzert attended the 100th anniversary of the Masonic Lodge in Otterville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loseff, Dale and Jeffery, Chicago, spent the weekend with Mrs. Loseff's mother, Mrs. William Peterman and Mr. Peterman and with her sister, Mrs. Homer Embree and family in Sedalia.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo (Pete) Lockard opened the Knobby Nook Cafe Friday in Mrs. Susie Zuber's building. Since last August they had been located in the rear of Easley's Drug Store. The interior has been redecorated and modern equipment installed.

Mrs. Susie Zuber has returned from Topeka, Kan., following a week visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Zuber and daughter, Suzanne. She attended the graduation exercises at the high school Friday evening where Miss Zuber was one of the graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Clark, Bernie and Kirby, Miss Esther Koch and Miss Marilyn Draper spent the weekend in Columbia with Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Berry, Kansas City, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Berry.

Sgt. Kenny Wetz left Friday morning for Shelby, O., for a 10-day leave with his mother, Mrs. Hazel Wetz.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. McDonald, St. Joseph spent Sunday night and Monday with their father, A. S. Adcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swearingen, Nancy, Gene and Gary, Pittsfield, Ill., spent from Saturday until Monday here with Mrs. Swearingen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd and with Mr. Swearingen's mother, Mrs. Mary Covey.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Vest, Reba Jane and Sally of Kamiah, Idaho, are visiting their mothers, Mrs. Mabel Vest and Mrs. Myrtle Fuller and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kendrick and son Bobby spent Sunday in Kansas City with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Shelton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Smart, Waxahachie, Tex., who are visiting relatives in Missouri spent Sunday and Monday here with Mrs. Smart's daughter, Mrs. Warren Benz and family. Miss Janet Cameron, Holden and Miss Bonnie Lou Lazenby, Green Ridge, were also weekend guests in the Benz home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon spent from Saturday until Monday in Kansas City with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Dixon, Paul William and Mary Jane.

HE JUST KEEPS EATING ALONG—The world's champion eater, Phillip Yazdik of Oliphant, Pa., adds to his laurels by consuming 81 hot dogs for a new hot dog-eating record. Yazdik, who recently set hamburger, fried chicken and pancake eating marks, performed this latest feat at a Cambridge, Mass., drive-in. Carhop Pat Mynaham does the serving.

Other diners guests were: Mrs. R. M. Shelton Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shelton, Independence and Raymond Bryan, Kansas City. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Paul Shelton, who left Friday for a six-week tour in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Swope, son Rolla returned Wednesday after spending several days in Sedalia with her niece, Mrs. C. H. Coffelt and Mr. Coffelt.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kendrick, Donnie and Ellis returned Monday night from Stinnett, Tex., after spending the weekend with Mrs. Jerome, who left Friday for a six-week tour in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Thurston and Reginald Hill, Kansas City, Warrensburg; Fred Jarvis and son, Centerview, brother, E. O. Price and family. Frank Jarvis and son, Centerview, Mrs. Grace Nace, Denver, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eckhoff, Junction City, Kan., spent a few days the past week with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Price, friends here Memorial Day.

Shepherds of Modern Times Find Sleep Comes Easily

By Vivian Brown

AP Newsfeatures Writer
WILTON, Conn.—Want a sure cure for insomnia? One that will stop that 5,784th sheep in midair? Simple. Just buy a couple of real sheep.

So advises Sydney Egerton, a part-time shepherd who commutes to New York 60 miles away each day. Edgie believes the trouble with most insomniaics is that they develop a guilty conscience even if they don't grow bored with counting the other fellow's sheep. Better they should have their own, he says.

Edgie should know. He and his wife Madeline have been raising sheep for seven years. Edgie gets so sleepy at his evening sheep chores that he's all set for his feather bed when the time comes. Says he:

"First you put the sheep to bed. When they're tucked safely away, tip-toe off yourself. After all, how can the sheep jump fences if they are snoring peacefully, all subconscious knows?"

Democrat-Capital Class Ads Are Workers You Can Afford To Hire! Phone 1000.

Sometimes, however, sheep don't sleep. Like during the spring lambing season. Three of Edger-ton's ewes produced triplets and two sets of twins this spring—a record year. A fourth is still expecting. Trouble was, a ewe can feed only two lambs at most, and the Mama Ewe with triplets ignored them completely. She was so startled to see three in her pen.

So Edgie got his night's rest in between feeding the lambs a formula of bourbon, milk and water out of a baby's bottle and keeping them warm. When he got a chance he slept normally, even though the lambs were wearing the blankets.

"Imagine," Edgie says, "lying awake when your own sheep's new lambs are nestled at the foot of your bed. Impossible."

There are other sheep chores besides midwife and nursing responsibilities. Protecting sheep from stray dogs is one (although the town is responsible for dog-killed sheep). Shearing them is another.

Edgie says that three bags full of wool (or 14 pounds) will make a blanket that is like a coverlet of sweet dreams. Even a Whiffen-poo could sleep under it, he says.

CURE FOR INSOMNIA. . . Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Egerton of Wilton, Conn., have no trouble sleeping after they attend to nightly chores of caring for sheep and lambs.

Texas Farmer Happy; Grows First Cotton

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP)—A farmer who suffered losses on corn and tomatoes wore a big grin today. He's got half interest in the nation's first bale of 1955 cotton.

That means in all probability a $2,000 windfall, maybe more, for Jerry Block. He says he can use his share of the auction money.

A hardy strain of cotton that blossomed out of almost bone-dry soil provided the first bale.

They finished plucking it late yesterday from a 240-acre Rio Grande Valley tract operated by Block and Will Wallace some 15 miles east of Edinburg. Picking began Saturday.

Ginned at Edinburg from 1,647 pounds of seed cotton, the 437-pound bale was sped some 35 miles here under police escort. It was officially registered at the Harlingen police station at 48 minutes and 40 seconds after 6 p.m.

Last year's first bale was cashed in for $4,500. The normal price is around $150 a bale.

Block, 50, is a pioneer Edinburg farmer. Wallace, 38, farms and runs a cotton gin and vegetable picking shed at Edinburg.

"We'll split the auction money bale here, plus whatever it auctions for."

"What will I do with my share? Man that's easy. I'll pay off some of those bills I've incurred because of crop losses earlier this year."

"I'm not kiddin' you, mister. There's just been no market for corn or tomatoes. Sweet corn roasting ears have gone begging. You can't even give them away. It's been rough."

Block and Wallace planted their cotton Jan. 23. It flourished despite drought and no irrigation. It is paymaster cotton, a type developed for dry West Texas and grown in dryland sections of the valley. Most of the valley is irrigated.

The valley, a semitropical strip at Texas' south tip, annually produces the first bale because of its early growing start.

The Harlingen Chamber of Commerce will auction the bale within a week. The growers get $1,500 from the chamber for bringing the

Try a Pilaf for a Summer Supper

By Cecily Brownstone

You may call it Pilaf. Or Pilau. Or Purlloo—if you live in Florida. But whatever name it goes by, it's a wonderful dish for summer eating because it is cooked on top of the range.

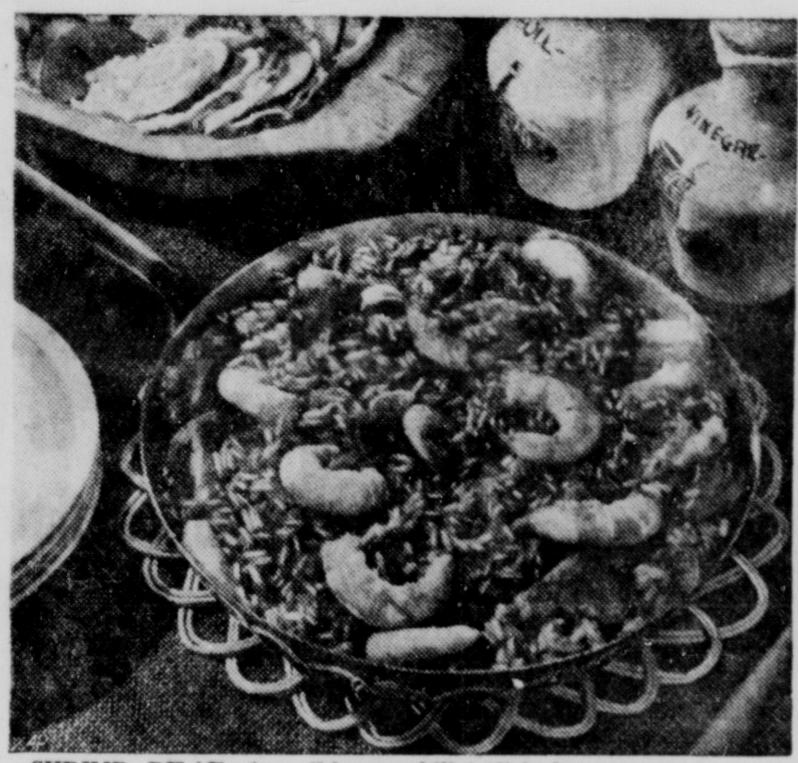

The basis of Pilaf is rice and it is usually prepared with shrimp, chicken or meat. It's popular in India, Turkey, Spain and other foreign countries as well as in our own Southern states.

The Pilaf we recommend to you is one made with rice, shrimp, onions, bacon, canned stewed tomatoes. Salt and pepper are the seasonings; we suggest lots of coarsely ground pepper—but suit your family's tastes.

For a warm-weather supper, you might like to start off with a chilled soup, then go on to the Pilaf and a salad, end with a fruit and cheese dessert.

The shrimp used in the Pilaf will give your family excellent protein and minerals, too. You shell and devein the raw shrimp, then let them cook with the rice and tomatoes. This way they seem to take on an especially white color, interesting texture. Saves you one step in cooking, too—and there is one sauceman less to wash than if you cooked the shrimp separately.

Here is one way of cleaning the shrimp. Hold the tail end in your left hand; slip your right thumb under the shell, on the side the feelers are on, and lift a good part of the shell off in one motion. Still holding the tail firmly, pull out the shrimp from the remaining section and the tail.

SHRIMP PILAF—An all-in-one-skillet dish for summer.

For this Pilaf we like the size of shrimp that come 26 to 30 to a pound.

When you get your shrimp home from the market put them in a tightly covered container, or leave them tightly wrapped, in the coldest part of the refrigerator. Remember, too, that the parchment-like shells of fresh shrimp fit close to the body; if the shell is loose the chances are the shrimp is not fresh.

Ever wonder why fresh shrimp are sometimes called "green"? This term is used simply to distinguish them from frozen shrimp?

If you have a freezer, you'll find having frozen shrimp on hand is often a boon. They can be used in a salad, a sandwich, a cheese rabbit, a cheese fondue, a curry, as a cocktail. They are particularly nice for company meals. Keep the making of a shrimp cocktail course on hand—chili sauce or catsup, bottled horseradish, Tabasco sauce, Worcestershire sauce—and you can easily have a fine first course for a supper for unexpected guests. Other ingredients can go into the cocktail sauce, too—lemon juice, finely diced celery and green pepper, or maybe scallops (green onions).

SHRIMP PILAF

Ingredients: 4 strips bacon, 1 cup converted-type rice, 1 cup thin strips onion, 1 clove garlic (peeled and minced), 1 can (No. 303) stewed tomatoes, 2 cups water, 1 teaspoon salt, coarsely ground black pepper, 1½ pounds fresh or frozen thawed shrimp (shelled and deveined).

Method: Cut bacon in 1-inch pieces; cook over low heat in Dutch oven or large skillet (10 inches) until crisp; remove bacon pieces.

To fat in pan, add rice, onions and garlic. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until rice is golden brown. Add tomatoes, water, salt and pepper to taste. Stir to mix well. Arrange shrimp on top. Bring to boil. Cover and simmer 20 minutes over low heat or until rice is cooked through. Add bacon. If dry pilaf is desired, simmer (uncovered) about 20 minutes more. Serve from pan or remove to serving platter. Makes 6 servings.

He Sells Only Coats, Suits, But All Are Large As Tents

AP Newsfeatures

PHILADELPHIA — To most people a 225-pound man is giant, but to Herman and George Jacobs, he's a bit under size.

George and his father run a clothing store in downtown Philadelphia that caters to a select trade and is known as the Store for Big Men.

The store stock includes boxer shorts with waistlines up to 70 inches. A size 69 suit is just an ordinary article of merchandise to the owners, but it would fit any average size man like an overcoat.

Operating the measuring tapes is one problem for the Jacobs.

Since they're both average-size, they have difficulty measuring some of these ample waists alone.

They usually solve the problem with George standing in front, tossing the tape around to Herman who then tosses it around to George to complete the circle.

chester, Mass., brings his 68-inch arms to be clothed by Jacobs.

The establishment, the Jacobs say, is one of only four or five in the country. It does a large mail-order business. On file are more than 25,000 names. Every state in the union plus Hawaii, Haiti, Puerto Rico, Germany, Sweden and Denmark are represented.

Among the regular customers is George Parker of Lancaster, Pa., who measures, according to the Jacobs' tapes, 68 inches around the waist and wears a size 24 shirt.

Another is Bernie Berle, a bandleader, who hovers around the 60-inch waist mark. Ben Wise, of Dorothy, 1½ pounds fresh or frozen thawed shrimp (shelled and deveined).

Method: Cut bacon in 1-inch pieces; cook over low heat in Dutch oven or large skillet (10 inches) until crisp; remove bacon pieces.

To fat in pan, add rice, onions and garlic. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until rice is golden brown. Add tomatoes, water, salt and pepper to taste. Stir to mix well. Arrange shrimp on top. Bring to boil. Cover and simmer 20 minutes over low heat or until rice is cooked through. Add bacon. If dry pilaf is desired, simmer (uncovered) about 20 minutes more. Serve from pan or remove to serving platter. Makes 6 servings.

Green Ridge Group Off To Camp Monday

By Mrs. Verna Palmer

GREEN RIDGE — On Monday, June 6, the following girls and boys of Green Ridge Presbyterian Church: Zeta Marie Mahin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mahin, Charlene Wisdom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wisdom, Danny Ridener, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ridener, Clyde Upton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Upton, Wayne Lett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Lett, Larry Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lewis, and Gary Edmundson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Edmundson, left from the church's Junior-Hi pioneer camp on the Lake of the Ozarks, Camp Lasterian near Camp Kaiser. The Rev. and Mrs. Lewis H. Dunlap served as guest leaders at the camp.

The Presbyterian Church, Green Ridge, will begin its Vacation Church School on Monday, June 20, and continue through Friday, July 1, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The theme for this year's Vacation Church School is "Jesus Christ." The Rev. Lewis Dunlap, minister, will be superintendent.

The following were installed at the Sunday morning worship services as leaders for the Vacation Church School: Mrs. Lewis Dunlap, Mrs. D. D. Davis, Mrs. William Heibner, Mrs. Sammy Anderson, Miss Mitzi Eby, Miss Carol DeCuster, Miss Jackie Kendrick, Miss Sue Harbit, Miss Mary Ann Lewis and Linville Doan.

The Rev. McClellan of Warrensburg conducted morning and evening worship services at the Green Ridge Baptist Church Sunday, June 5.

On Sunday, June 12, the Rev. Curtis Hutcherson, Warrensburg, will conduct the worship services at the church.

On Sunday, June 19, the Rev. E. E. Benz, the newly elected pastor of the Green Ridge Baptist Church, will be present and begin his work as pastor.

Mrs. J. L. Purchase, Sr., was hostess Wednesday afternoon at the June meeting of the Triple F Club at her home.

The following members were present: Mrs. G. D. Rayburn, Mrs. L. L. Ream, Mrs. Helen Bucher, Mrs. George Spickert, Mrs. John Proctor, Mrs. Ethel Sims, Mrs. H. H. Ream, Mrs. Etta Murphy, Mrs. W. F. Hollenbeck and Mrs. A. N. Baker.

Guests of the club at the meeting were: Miss Dorothy Lee Hollenbeck and Millie Hollenbeck and Mrs. Wilfred Purchase.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brownfield and son, Duane, have moved into their new home which has just been recently completed by Clifford Brownfield from whom they purchased the residence property.

Mrs. Velma Morley, Sedalia, moved Saturday to the residence which the Gordon Brownfield's vacated which she purchased recently from Mr. and Mrs. Brownfield.

Mrs. Mae Iman and her granddaughter, Linda, have gone to St. Louis where they will spend a few weeks visiting Mrs. Iman's daughter, Mrs. Rollie Egbert, Mr. Egbert and son, Iman, at their home in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Palmer spent Memorial Day in Windsor where they were guests of their mother, Mrs. Thomas Stone and Mr. Stone. Other dinner guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Edmondson and son, Donald, and Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Wilson and son, Charles, Chillicothe. John Knoop, who has been teaching geology in a college at Ruston, La., for the past school term is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mattie Myers.

YOU GET MORE AND BETTER JAMS...
MORE EASILY... THIS UNCOOKED WAY!

THE REASON IS... these uncooked jam recipes, developed exclusively by M.C.P. JAM AND JELLY PECTIN, by doing away with the usual cooking and boiling, eliminate the very cause of flavor loss, color loss, and lower yield! With M.C.P.'s uncooked recipes, you actually use less sugar and fruit, yet get more jam — a pint for each cup of fruit — and full fruit flavor and color are retained intact, for none is boiled away. If fresh berries are scarce or high priced, you can always use frozen berries, and get as much as 13 glasses (each  $\frac{1}{2}$  lb.) for less than 15¢ a glass! And think of the comfort of having your jam over a hot stove! Every package of M.C.P. JAM AND JELLY PECTIN (3½ oz.) contains complete recipes for these wonderful uncooked jams... complete recipes, too, for the regular cooked jams and jellies, if you prefer them.

SO COOLING... SO REFRESHING... SO GOOD... AND SO QUICK AND EASY TO MAKE

WHOLESALE LEMONADE made with convenient, ready-to-use M.C.P. LEMON JUICE! One small can ... plus sugar, water, and ice... and you've got nearly 2 quarts of delicious old-fashioned lemonade in seconds, and for pennies a glass. There's no fuss, no muss, no bother! Just add water, sugar, and ice, shake it ... and how much better it is for them than most other beverages available to them! It's a treat for the whole family, for that matter. M.C.P. LEMON JUICE is pure, unadulterated, full strength, rich in Vitamin C. It's NOT "reconstituted" juice... contains no preservatives of any kind, such as unwholesome sulphur dioxide or benzote of soda. (It will pay to read the label carefully before you buy any lemon juice, bottled or canned). M.C.P. LEMON JUICE costs less than home-squeezed juice... so convenient because it's always ready for instant refreshment... anything else will take time! M.C.P. LEMON JUICE is so delicious in jam and jelly making, baking, and cooking, for salad dressings, as a daily "tonic" in a glass of water. Write for a FREE Recipe Folder to the M.C.P. Kitchen Laboratory, Anaheim, California. (And remember, there's M.C.P. FROZEN LEMON JUICE also. Your grocer has it or can get it for you if you ask him).

IF YOU COUNT YOUR CALORIES
YOU'LL WANT TO KNOW ABOUT...

M.C.P. "LOW SUGAR" PECTIN... the amazing new type of pectin that now enables you to make fruit desserts, jams and jellies, pie fillings, custards, etc., with less, little, or no sugar at all! Developed exclusively by Mutual Citrus Products Co., it's the first "low sugar" pectin ever made. With M.C.P. "Low Sugar" PECTIN, you can make all kinds of delicious recipes that meet the rigid sugar and starch restrictions of diabetic diets, the exacting requirements of weight control diets, or simply your taste preference for things "less sweet than usual". M.C.P. Graham Ends
Paris Crusade;
2,000 Answer

PARIS — Billy Graham tonight ends his five-day Paris Crusade, which so far has brought out more than 31,000 persons. Nearly 2,000 of them have answered the American evangelist's call to make "Decisions for Christ."

"We have fallen in love with the French people," Graham told a crowd of nearly 10,000 last night. "We like everything about you, even your coffee."

In delivering his spiritual message Graham told the audience, "Many of you have been searching all your life and haven't found satisfaction. You will never find it until you have taken Him into your life."

The alternatives, the 37-year-old preacher said, are "eternal life and Heaven or judgment and destruction."

A total of 467 persons answered last night's call for Decisions for Christ.

Although the Paris crowds have been much smaller than those during his recent seven-week campaign in Britain, Graham said he was "extremely gratified" by the turnout. Graham's words are translated into French as he speaks here.

In London, a spokesman for the evangelist announced the opening of an office in the British capital. It will serve as headquarters for Europe.

Playboy, Sportsman, 'Guardian of Splendor' Is Bao Dai, Indochina's Absent Emperor

By Rosette Hargrove
NEA Staff Correspondent

CANNES, France — (NEA) On clear mornings a powerful sports car rolls through the wrought-iron gates, topped by two fiery dragons, which guard the entrance to the apricot-colored Chateau de Thorenc, overlooking Cannes.

At the wheel is Bao Dai (Guardian of Splendor), the emperor (in absentia) of Indochina. With a couple of white-clad native servants, he is on his way to an hour's shooting practice. He seldom misses the clay pigeons set up for him.

Although his subjects have seen little of Bao Dai in recent years, he is a familiar figure in the good little restaurants which dot this fabulous coast. Often he arrives without warning, with an entourage of his diplomats, Vietnamese officials and perhaps one or two fragile Indochinese beauties in native costume.

After dinner, he may drop in at the Casino and negligently toss $300 worth of chips on the roulette table. Sometimes he even forgets to pick up his winnings. For Bao Dai, emperor since he was 12, is a rich man. He is said to have paid $2,500,000 for his chateau, keeps a score of luxurious cars in its garage, is the best-dressed man on the Cote d'Azur.

Behind this facade of wealth and ease, however, political tension has been increasing in past months. Few chiefs of state have so many antagonists as this moon-faced sovereign. The Red Vietnamese call him a traitor and a Rasputin. The U.S. State Department thinks he embodies all the shortcomings of an Oriental and a Frenchman. Even French opinion treats him severely.

In his favor, so far as the French are concerned, is that he is intelligent and friendly to France, and thus still a key personality in the confused Indochinese picture.

This perhaps explains why, after much deliberation, the foreign ministers who met in Paris recently agreed that Bao Dai should retain his post as chief of the Viet Nam state as constitutional monarch of southern Indochina.

But he will still rule from his plush chateau, for there was no decision on his return to Viet Nam, where he was born in 1913 in an immense palace on the banks of the River of Perfumes.

When he was nine, the French who had governed Indochina since its conquest in 1895 decided the future emperor should be educated in Paris. He arrived wearing a wondrous robe embroidered with golden dragons and an enormous parasol hat of red velvet.

At 12, his father died and Bao Dai went home to be proclaimed 13th emperor of the Nguyen dynasty, but returned immediately to his Paris tutors. He absorbed the traditions of both countries. He also became an outstanding sportsman, played top tennis with Champion Henri Cochet, drove a car like a racing driver.

In 1932, he went home again to ascend the throne of the Golden Dragon. But the mummified traditions of the centuries-old palace, peopled with eunuchs and mandarins, soon irked the young monarch almost as much as the close guardianship of French officials. He realized he was powerless to apply the democratic teachings he had been taught.

His marriage two years later did not help palace feelings. The young empress was the daughter of a rich merchant of remote Nyguen ancestry, but her family had acquired French citizenship, she was Catholic, and had been educated in France.

Until the Japanese overran his country, Bao Dai tried to offset his disillusionments by living dangerously. He hunted tigers, built a tennis court and a pool on the palace grounds, piloted powerful cars and speedboats with reckless abandon, had countless adventures with blonde and brunette beauties of every nationality.

Meantime, there was a little Tonkinese named Nyguen Ai Choc who had been tossed out of Indochina as a Communist. About the time Bao Dai was getting married, Nyguen Ai Choc was making a miserable living as a photographer's assistant in Paris. Later he went to Moscow. He took a new name: Ho Chi Minh, "He Who Enlightens."

When World War II ended, the republic of Viet Nam was established within the French Union. Democrat Class Ads Get Results!

Twin Hearts Studied

BOSTON — Twins are being studied at Massachusetts General Hospital in an effort to determine whether heart disease is inherited or the result of environment.

Specialists making the study believe that if an identical twin of a victim of heart disease shows heart involvement, it could indicate an inherited characteristic.

Thousands of cases will be studied, however, before the doctors reach any conclusions.

Push City Street Repairs . . .

Stimulation of interest in street improvements confronts every growing city — and Sedalia is no exception.

Many local streets have been deteriorating, and more unimproved ones are being treated in the city limits as new home additions are built.

The deadline fast approaches when much can be done about curbs, gutters and paving this season. For those who think they can arouse enough enthusiasm in their neighborhood to petition city council for improvements to be made this summer, the council will hold a recess meeting Tuesday night, June 14, for the receipt of property owners' requests.

City Engineer W. C. Davis has appealed to property owners to move quickly this week in order that petitions may be circulated and filed in time for the seasonal activity. It is the responsibility of the property owners to initiate street improvements and pay for the same. The city is not allowed to spend tax funds for new construction.

Special attention has been given to curb and gutter installations as a preliminary step to assure good drainage and subsequent paving of any type street. Much of this has already been constructed and more on the program for summer.

Determination by experience in Sedalia and elsewhere has been made that seal coating of streets from general revenue is uneconomical, and declaration of city administration policy to that effect and in favor of permanent improvements has been made. Temporary improvements do not hold up under the strain of modern traffic conditions.

Seal coating material and labor costs have risen appreciably to further discourage what seems to be a waste of revenue. When that revenue faces the burden of static tax conditions and the need for wider streets and the inability to spread available street repair revenue over an increasing area of new trafficways, these conditions are in conflict with abnormal maintenance requirements everywhere.

An improved street in front of a property never depreciates its value, rather adds to it. The trend locally is for more improved streets. The invitation for property owners to follow the trend is here.

Those who intend to take advantage of the season's construction period this summer and desire to know more about the mechanics of processing a petition should consult City Engineer Davis immediately.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round—

GOP Worries Over Blame For Polio Fiasco

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — The White House has been rocked by a backstage battle over how far Ike should stick his nose into the polio mess. Some advisers, anxious to use the President's prestige to quiet the polio hullabaloo, urged him to go on television to reassure the public. Others advised him to keep his hands off the controversy, to let his subordinates face the TV cameras alone. . . . What worries the politicians is that the voters may blame the administration for the polio deaths caused by contaminated vaccine. . . . Busiest backstage figure in the polio crisis has been Dr. Chester Scott Keefer, Assistant Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, who was directly responsible for overseeing the program. Now chairman of the President's advisory committee on polio, he's squirming to get off the hook. . . . Keefer was originally planted with HEW by the American Medical Association. . . . A high-powered public relations expert, Robert Kennedy, was brought into HEW to whitewash the polio bungling. . . . Cutter Laboratories, whose contaminated Salk serum caused most of the trouble, was the only producer which refused to build special facilities to produce the vaccine. . . . Another polio vaccine, which caused several polio deaths in 1954-55 tests, practically stopped all research on polio immunizing agents for 10 years. . . . Government doctors believe polio vaccine can be improved so it can be administered without painful injections. They believe the injection, itself, can cause associated paralysis by localizing all the polio virus in the body around the injection. What the doctors hope to do is develop a serum that can be simply swabbed on the throat.

Adlai Will Run

It was no accident that a rash of stories came out of Washington and Chicago recently that Adlai Stevenson would definitely run again.

As early as April 20 this column quoted Adlai's son, Borden, that his father would run. But the recent rash came from Stevenson's law partner and made it clear that whether Eisenhower runs or not, Stevenson will.

Various other Democratic candidates have been lying low, waiting to see whether Ike would run. But Stevenson has decided not to wait. In the first place, he doesn't think it's fair to the other Democrats, many of whom, such as Gov. Averell Harriman of New York and Gov. Mennen Williams of Michigan, are close personal friends.

Secret Conversation

Wilson was former U.S. procurement chief in Europe, at which time he was approached by two promoters who wanted to sell 720,000 pounds of tungsten a year to the U.S. strategic stockpile.

The two international promoters, William Graham and Lewis Gordon, claimed the tungsten would come from a mine in Spain.

Since tungsten is vital to the production of jet engines, Wilson made a special inspection trip to Spain to size up the mine, and concluded it couldn't produce the promised tungsten. He recommended against the deal.

In revenge, Graham and Gordon signed an affidavit, charging that Wilson had met them in Madrid's Montesolito bar and had demanded a cut from the contract.

When all the furor and investigation was over, however, the U.S. agents discovered that Wilson was actually miles away from the Montesolito bar getting a suit tailored. They also discovered that Gordon, himself, who said he'd had a conversation in the bar, was actually playing chess several blocks from the bar at the time he was supposed to be talking to Wilson in the bar.

Secret Conversation

The clincher, however, was a recorded conversation the agents picked up over a secret mike in Gordon's room in the Cumberland Hotel in London.

This column has been able to obtain this conversation. It shows that a mysterious Spaniard, named Rafael Duran, stopped in to see Gordon. They talked about blackmailing General Wilson and double-crossing Gordon's partner, Graham.

Duran suggested that the incriminating affidavit might be sold to Wilson, himself, who might pay blackmail money to spare himself embarrassment.

"And the general, won't he pay?" the Spaniard asked Gordon, referring to Wilson.

"If he thinks his position is strong enough, he won't pay," replied Gordon.

"You go see Wilson alone," suggested Duran. "Do you realize though, your partner, Graham, might kill you if he discovers you're dealing with Wilson?"

"Well, that's the risk," retorted Gordon. That is the amazing secret tape recording secured by U.S. government agents who were given the job of clearing up the charges brought against the Deputy Undersecretary of Commerce.

Then our mind wandered backward 10 to 15 years to a time when graduates also were plagued with inevitable military service and an uncertain future. Then we recalled the era in which we graduated from high school — time of depression. The picture was dismal.

Back we went to the distant past — Civil and Revolutionary War days, the 100 Years War, the Dark Ages, the days of Nero and Herod.

It occurred to us that there have been 17-year-old youngsters standing on the brink of life ever since the creation of man. To them the future often seemed even darker than it is now. Most of them were acquainted with war, even on their own soil. Most of them knew what it was to see property and life wiped out. We doubt if they wrote essays on civil defense, but well they might have.

Our deduction was that life, whether in the first or twentieth century, has never been a bed of roses. It has been cruel to many in many ages. It does not promise us freedom from responsibility and care. Ours is not to indulge in self pity, either for ourselves or our children. It is to face intelligently and philosophically the path that lies ahead.

Guest Editorial--

TULIA (Texas) HERALD: PHILOSOPHY FOR A CRUCIAL AGE. Recently we read a number of essays in civil defense written by local high school students. We were impressed by two things — the writing ability of these students and their mature, realistic thinking.

These youthful writers painted pictures of terrifying H-bombs wiping out cities, destroying property and murdering people. They saw their own families burned and dying from the effects of these bombs. They visualized plans of action to be taken when warning of impending disaster was given.

For a moment a sense of pity descended upon us. Why should these youths, normally concerned with going to college, establishing families and starting out to make a fortune, have to be concerned with war, destruction and disaster — not in Europe or Asia but right here in America.

Thought For Today—

Thus saith the Lord God: Because Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended and revenged himself upon them;—Ezekiel 25:12.

An act by which we make one friend and one enemy is a losing game; because revenge is a much stronger principle than gratitude.—Colton.

There Is a Need for Uniform Code of Conduct for POW's

By Joseph A. Dear
Democrat-Capital
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The possibility that Red China compelled four American airmen to sign phony confessions before their recent release has refocused attention on a thorny problem now under study at the Pentagon.

The problem is to devise a new code of conduct — simple, realistic, and uniform — to guide any American who has to endure Communist captivity. There is no such code now. Each service follows its own policy.

Last week Captain Harold Fischer, one of the four airmen liberated by the Chinese, was asked if he had to sign a confession before his so-called trial. "I believe I'll wait and see my lawyer before answering that question," the Captain replied.

From a returning hero that has an odd ring, Air Force spokesmen here say Fischer's reply was probably a jocular attempt to cut off the question period with the press.

One evening a couple went to the home of some friends, who have a parakeet, to play cards. During the evening the man who was a guest in the home went into the kitchen to get a drink of water and just as he turned the water on he didn't know whether an atomic bomb had been dropped or a tornado had hit but there was a terrible noise and something hit him on the head.

When he recovered enough to find out what had happened to him he found that simultaneously as he turned that faucet on the garbage disposal went on and the parakeet flew in and lit on his head.—H. L.

US Pocket Money Seems On the Rise

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—America's pocket money is on the rise. Private industry is paying out eight billion dollars more this year than last in wages and salaries.

Businessmen are competing fiercely for their share of total personal income — now running at an annual rate of around 296 billion dollars, some 11 billion more than a year ago.

This week's Ford-UAW settlement, friendly as it was, was a cold-blooded business. If Ford defied the union and the workers struck, the company might have lost disastrously in the fierce competition with General Motors.

That historian, looking back with the hindsight of history and the evidence of events which haven't occurred yet, may decide the maturity both sides showed in this case was the coming of age of American labor and management.

Perhaps that is true for the UAW and the auto industry and they will henceforth live peacefully. But it won't be true with other unions and other industries and it may not be true for the UAW and the auto makers.

This week's Ford-UAW settlement, friendly as it was, was a cold-blooded business. If Ford defied the union and the workers struck, the company might have lost disastrously in the fierce competition with General Motors.

If GM now doesn't grant the UAW what Ford did, and there's a strike, the giant of the industry may suffer terrible damage. But in any auto strike that lasted long the workers would suffer terribly too.

It is nice to think labor and management in the auto industry have become mature. But if they are mature now, their coming of age had its roots in a factor both sides recognized in each other; both hold enormous power to hurt each other.

But it will be a long time before all unions and industries will work out their problems as peacefully as the auto industry and the UAW.

This may be particularly true in the South, where the merged AFL-CIO plans big organizing drives. In some areas of the South the growing pains haven't started yet.

Male Expert Says Women Have Lot to Learn About How to Take Care of Hubby Properly

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — NEA — Let's face it, gals, it takes a man to tell us about the care and feeding of husbands.

This ancient craft, which we've always considered our own, is now being invaded by the opposite sex. It might even be given the title of "husbandology."

And according to one male expert on this delicate subject, wives have a lot to learn. He's Dr. Na- than Kohn, Jr., a nationally known industrial psychologist.

So take a gander at some of the free advice he offered to wives, here with their executive husbands for the National Industrial Advertisers Association convention. It may come as a bit of a jolt, but perhaps that's just what you need.

Stop serving your husband the same unimaginative meals day in and day out, he warns. Don't continually fill his ear with silly gossip. And give him a chance to relax and do nothing even if it means missing a good party.

For whether you realize it or not, your behavior may be the reason why your husband is tense, grumpy, uncommunicative and set in his ways.

It is the responsibility of the wife, says Kohn, to counteract the strain of modern living which is taking a high death toll of creative and talented young men. She must not stand by and let this happen. She must put more time and thought into the care and feeding of her husband.

"A woman should give her husband a good and varied diet," explains Kohn. "This applies not only to food but to emotional matters."

Willing To Meet Soviets

Adenauer Not Ready To Talk For Weeks; Prefers Not To Confer In Moscow

BONN, Germany, June 9.—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer is willing to talk with the Soviet Union's leaders but not for several weeks and not necessarily in Moscow, a government spokesman said today.

There must first be a low-level exchange of views to determine the "appropriate circumstances," the spokesman said.

May Propose Geneva

Other sources said the Russian invitation to the West German leader to visit the Soviet capital for a discussion on re-establishing normal relations may be answered by Adenauer with a proposal for a meeting at some neutral point—perhaps Geneva.

They also pointed out that West Germany could enter into diplomatic, trade and cultural relations with the U. S. S. R. without the Chancellor going to Moscow.

The spokesman said Adenauer has insisted that German and Russian experts have an exchange of opinions before the time and place of any meeting of their government leaders is fixed. These exchanges already have started in Paris, he added, and will continue for several weeks.

To Reply After Meet In US

This apparently rules out any possibility that Adenauer will reply to the Kremlin until after he talks with President Eisenhower and other Western leaders in Washington and New York next week. He is to leave for the United States Sunday.

Government officials said Adenauer does not want to fall into any trap that would perpetuate the Russian grip on East Germany.

Nor does he want to get out of step with his Western allies and lay himself open to a charge of disloyally playing off East against West, they said.

His aides reported the Chancellor was therefore "very gratified" by President Eisenhower's expression of confidence in him at a Washington news conference yesterday.

Might Confer At Summit Meet

Official reports said the Bonn government is exploring the idea Adenauer might meet the Russians at the Big Four summit conference which the United States, Britain and France have proposed be held in Geneva July 18-21. There is also a possibility a West German parliamentary delegation might be sent to Moscow for preliminary talks.

Soviet Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan told reporters in Moscow today the Soviet government has no timetable for Adenauer's visit. He was replying to a reporter who asked whether Adenauer was expected to come before or after the Big Four meeting.

Would Stay Faithful To West

Heinrich von Brentano, who took over the Bonn Foreign Office for Adenauer yesterday, told an interviewer that West Germany would remain faithful to the Western alliance in any discussions with Russia. He pledged that Paris pacts making her an armed member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would be strictly observed.

The new foreign minister said the final aim of any talks with the Russian leaders would be creation of a reunified Germany possessing "genuine freedom of action and freedom of decision."

Youth Dies Of Bullet Wounds He Suffered While Hunting Wed.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 9.—Ronnie McGinnis, 10, Phoenix, Ariz., died today of a bullet wound suffered yesterday while hunting near Mammoth, Mo.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva McGinnis, was found unconscious yesterday beside a stream. A .22 caliber bullet had entered his left cheek and emerged from the top of his head. His rifle was nearby.

The boy and his father were visiting at the home of the boy's paternal grandmother.

Calls Him Old Military Friend—

Zhukov Hopes To Continue Correspondence With Ike

MOSCOW, June 9.—Marshal Georgi Zhukov said today he hopes to keep up his "very nice exchange" of letters with President Eisenhower, whom he described as an old military friend.

The Soviet defense minister made the statement at a gay British Embassy garden party in honor of Queen Elizabeth's birth day. Premier Nikolai Bulganin number of toasts with British Ambassador Sir William Hayter.

Queried On Letters Contents

Zhukov was in a cheerful mood as he chatted with reporters. He was asked what was in the correspondence, which Eisenhower confirmed at a news conference in Washington on April 27.

"We have agreed for the time being not to reveal the contents of our correspondence," Zhukov replied.

Eisenhower, indicating Zhukov initiated the correspondence, has declined also to disclose the contents. That, Eisenhower added, was up to Zhukov. When reporters pointed this out Zhukov made a remark about a secret agreement.

Plan To Keep Up Correspondence

Asked about future correspondence, Zhukov replied:

"I don't think we will refuse to write each other in the future. It's a very nice exchange of letters. We're old military friends."

Zhukov and Eisenhower were on good terms in the early days of the German occupation, and Eisenhower visited Moscow.

Published accounts have said Zhukov wrote Eisenhower seeking release of a Soviet youth who had crossed over from East Berlin seeking political asylum. The youth later was released to the custody of his parents. The accounts said Eisenhower's letter, in return, reminded Zhukov that American parents were interested in releasing airmen held by the Chinese Reds, and suggested Zhukov use his good offices to effect the fliers' release. There has been no disclosure that Zhukov acted in that regard.

During the party U. S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen talked a half hour with Zhukov. Bohlen also chatted with Bulganin.

"Just social chit-chat," was all Bohlen would say of these talks. He is leaving Monday for consultations in Washington.

The officers were going to make a check of the driver after he made the minor traffic violation.

When he ran and had to be chased, he was taken to police headquarters where he admitted, according to the police, taking the car from the base earlier in the evening.

Air Police on duty in Sedalia called the air base to check on the car and learned it was the property of John C. Gyorfi, also of the 340th Air Police Squadron.

Gyorfi, according to the officers, when informed his car was picked up in Sedalia, reported his keys had been taken during the day and he noticed the car gone that evening, but wasn't sure that it had been stolen.

Further investigation is being conducted by the police in Sedalia and by the Air Police at the base, was also there and tossed off a

Convict Denies Part In Slaying Of Donnell

KANSAS CITY, June 9.—Donald W. LeLapp, Missouri Penitentiary convict was on the stand for three hours today in his trial on a charge of first degree murder.

DeLapp, one of seven convicts accused in the slaying of Walter Lee Donnell, a fellow convict, during the September riot, denied he had anything to do with the slaying.

After his testimony the defense rested its case.

DeLapp told under cross examination a story of being threatened by officers in making a statement about the riots in which four prisoners were killed and more than a score wounded. He declared troopers of the Missouri Highway Patrol slapped him and hit him in the kidneys with a night stick.

The following day, he testified St. Louis police officers and highway patrolmen talked with him "real nice" for about 10 minutes "then they kicked the chair out from under me." He said his arm was pulled and his wounded foot rubbed on the concrete floor.

British To Press Search For Formosa Peace—

Queen Elizabeth II Opens New Parliament; Predicts 'Fruitful Accords' With Russia

LONDON, June 9.—Queen Elizabeth II opened a new Parliament today with a confident prediction of "fruitful negotiations" with Russia and a pledge that Britain will press ahead in search of a Formosa peace.

The young monarch, looking radiant in white gown and glittering diamond tiara, delivered her traditional speech from the throne in the ancient gilded House of Lords.

Assembled before her were the newly elected members of the House of Commons, headed by Conservative Prime Minister Eden, and peers of the realm robed in scarlet and ermine.

After declaring her government's wholehearted support for the North Atlantic Alliance, and pledging to continue to work in close accord with the United States, the Queen said in her high, firm voice:

"Fortified by the growing unity and strength of the free nations my government look forward in a spirit of confidence and good

Labor Leader Attlee Accuses Eden Of Mishandling British Rail Strike

GM To Close Twenty Plants Idling 60,000

Shutdown Caused By Parts Shortages From Union Strikes

DETROIT, June 9.—General Motors Corp. said today it will close 20 plants across the nation tomorrow idling 60,000 workers because of parts shortages from wildcat union strikes protesting delay in GM contract negotiations here.

GM's announcement came as talks with the CIO United Auto Workers continued on a hopeful note that an agreement could be worked out to beat a Sunday mid-night strike.

Prepares Guaranteed Wage Offer

GM was reported preparing to hand UAW President Walter Reuther and the union negotiators an offer patterned after Monday's Ford settlement, but both sides maintained a strict silence.

The wildcat strikes erupted earlier this week in a half dozen or more GM plants as the UAW extended its contract from Tuesday to Sunday midnight. Strikers were reported confused about the postponement and trigger-happy for a walkout because of slow progress in the Detroit bargaining.

It was indicated, however, that GM's delay in making an offer was primarily due to preparing its position in the light of the Ford agreement, which provides a modified guaranteed wage, plus pay pensions and other concessions.

Plan To Keep Up Correspondence

Asked about future correspondence, Zhukov replied:

"I don't think we will refuse to write each other in the future. It's a very nice exchange of letters. We're old military friends."

Zhukov and Eisenhower were on good terms in the early days of the German occupation, and Eisenhower visited Moscow.

Published accounts have said Zhukov wrote Eisenhower seeking release of a Soviet youth who had crossed over from East Berlin seeking political asylum. The youth later was released to the custody of his parents. The accounts said Eisenhower's letter, in return, resulted in a parts shortage and otherwise unbalanced the delicately integrated vast GM productive system.

GM estimated it will lose production of 20,000 cars and trucks this week.

UAW Vice President John Livingston said all the wildcat strikes will be ended tomorrow, except one at the Buick-Oldsmobile-Pontiac Southgate plant at Los Angeles, idling 5,200 men. He said the union was sending special representatives there by plane tonight to persuade the strikers to return to work.

LeDapp told the court he was driving through the stop sign and gave chase. The driver tried to get away, but the officers came upon him at Third and Moniteau. Here the driver stopped and, with another man, jumped from the vehicle and started running.

Young was apprehended by the officers. The other man made good his escape, but questioning of Young resulted in a pickup order for A-3c Frank Studwood, also from the base. Studwood was picked up later at the base by Air Police and was being detained for the local police.

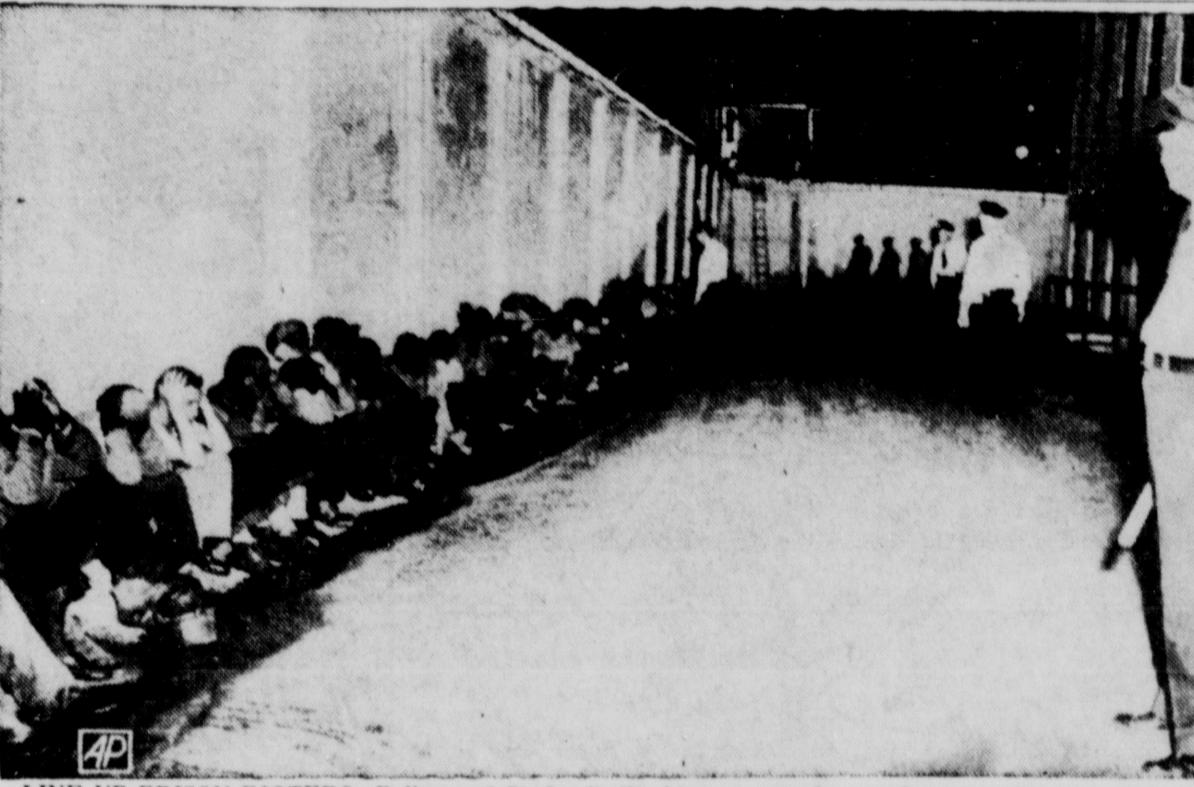

The officers were going to make a check of the driver after he made the minor traffic violation.

When he ran and had to be chased, he was taken to police headquarters where he admitted, according to the police, taking the car from the base earlier in the evening.

Air Police on duty in Sedalia called the air base to check on the car and learned it was the property of John C. Gyorfi, also of the 340th Air Police Squadron.

Steelworkers Bargain With Producers

Finish First Stage Negotiations With US Steel, Republic

PITTSBURGH, June 9.—The CIO United Steel Workers, driving to reach wage agreements with the basic steel industry, today concluded the first phase of bargaining with two major producers and opened negotiations with two others.

Led by President David J. McDonald, USW negotiating committees completed "primary present" of the big union's demands to U. S. Steel Corp. and Republic Steel Corp. Initial talks previously had been finished with Bethlehem Steel Corp.

Will Study Union Proposals

Negotiators for the three firms said they would study the union proposals, calling for a "substantial" but undefined pay boost, in preparation for the next conference.

No definite dates were set for resumption of bargaining. It is likely, however, that negotiators will go back to the bargaining table sometime next week.

J. & L. Youngstown Meet

Officials of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. and Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. held their first negotiations with the USW and Inland Steel Corp. slated to meet tomorrow. J. & L. and Youngstown Sheet & Tube will meet again to-morrow.

The union is free to strike if no agreement is worked out by June 30. Both USW and industry officials have expressed hope that settlements will be effected well in advance of that date.

Man Crushed To Death While Felling Tree

GRAHAM, Mo., June 9.—Jasper Sylva, 50, was crushed to death today when a large tree he was digging out fell on him. The accident happened on a farm six miles south of here in Andrew County.

He said that, "It is not yet known whether it was an enemy plane."

"We frequently scramble to intercept unidentified aircraft picked up on radar. Sometimes they are just aircraft whose flight plans have gone astray."

Asked if any of the planes were ever Soviet MiGs from nearby Communist East Germany, he replied:

"I can't answer that, of course. The pilot of the Sabre Jet was instantly killed. Only his flying helmet has been found."

The money was in small bills and change.

It was the second time Yates had been robbed while making weekly withdrawals from the bank. The first time was last February. Two bandits then robbed him of $3,000.

New Church Leader

MONMOUTH, Ill. (UPI)—The Rev. George A. Long, of Pittsburgh, is the 1955 moderator of the United Presbyterian Church of North America. Dr. Long, 70, who has been president of Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminary since 1943, was named by the church's 97th General Assembly last night. He succeeds Dr. Albert E. Kelly, of Philadelphia.

Charles M. Yates, 36, an assistant store manager, said he had just started to drive away from the bank when the bandits drove up in a two-ton green sedan. He said all three drew revolvers and leaped from the car ordering him to turn over the sack of money.

The point was not made clear in an article yesterday and it was assumed that orders would be collected at the extension office.

These meetings, Eden said, will offer "an exceptional opportunity but they are bound to take time and will call for patience."

Amid cheers the Prime Minister declared: "I know the whole House will hope they will be a first step in relaxing international tensions and really removing fear from the minds of men."

In the House of Lords, the Queen spoke for exactly 10 minutes. Then with the bells pealing from St. Margaret's church and cannon boomerang in salute from St. James Park, Elizabeth left smiling, her fingertips resting on the hand of her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh.

Eden said he hopes his meeting with President Eisenhower, Soviet

Ernestine Shore Becomes Bride Of W. Hardin

Miss Ernestine Shore, daughter of Mrs. Roy Shore and the late Mancil Shore of Versailles, became the bride of Mr. Wayne Hardin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hardin, also of Versailles, at 7 o'clock Friday evening, May 20, at the home of the bride's mother and step-father. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. J. L. Freeman in the presence of close relatives.

The bride wore a blue street length dress with blue and white accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Donna Simms, Rolla. She wore a street length dress of pink and white with black and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Mr. Duane Hart served as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. The dining room table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom. Red roses were used as decorations throughout the house.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Versailles High School. Mrs. Hardin is employed at the Kansas City Bifocal plant in Versailles and Mr. Hardin is associated with his father in the Versailles concrete block business.

The couple left for a short honeymoon following the reception. They will make their home in Versailles.

Theme 'Around the Clock' —

The fifth annual rose show sponsored by the Sedalia Rose Society and held Friday at the Smith - Cotton Little Theater brought honors to several Sedalians and recognition to many more.

American Rose Society medals went to three Sedalians for arrangements and to two for horticulture. Mrs. Herbert Seifert won a gold medal in arrangements, while Mrs. Ed Brummett received a silver medal and Mrs. Wilford Acker a bronze one. Mrs. W. H. Eichholz took the gold medal in horticulture, while Brummett won both the silver and bronze medals.

Brummett was also the winner of the perpetual trophy of the Sedalia Rose Society in the horticulture class, with 84 points, and Mrs. Fred Koenig received the same honor in the arrangements class.

The theme of the show was "Around the Clock." The exhibit centered around a simulated old-fashioned clock. From six points on its dial, streamers of different hues reached to six tables around it, each bearing roses of the same color as the streamer and representing different hours of the day.

The awards, which included the list of winners below, were made at 8 p.m. by Oscar DeWolf, show chairman.

Colette Bestgen Becomes Bride Saturday Morning

St. Andrew's Church, Tipton, was the scene of the wedding Saturday morning, May 28, at 10 o'clock of Miss Colette Bestgen and Jack Merrifield. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. J. Breit, followed by a high mass.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Urban Bestgen, Tipton, was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a nylon lace and net over satin gown. The molded bodice of lace embroidered with sequins featured a high rolled collar and long lace sleeves which tapered to points over the hand. The bouffant skirt appliqued with lace motifs on net over satin lengthened into a short train. Her fingertip lace trimmed illusion veil was held in place with a crown of embroidered seed pearls and paillettes. The bride's bouquet was of red roses surrounded with stephanotis and white streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Knipp, cousin of the bride, and Miss Annabel Solomon. Their identical dresses were of white crystalline taffeta, each carrying a bouquet of white carnations.

Mr. Merrifield, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Merrifield, of Sayre, Okla., had as groomsman Mr. Constance Bestgen, brother of the bride, and Mr. Loren Merrifield, his brother.

Ushers were Mr. Garland and Mr. Leonard Bestgen, Mr. Edwin Dean, Mr. Cecil Knipp and Mr. Leroy Knipp.

The bride, a registered nurse, is a graduate of the Nursing School of Providence Hospital, Kansas City, Kan.

The bridegroom served four years in the Air Force with 18 months overseas duty. A wedding dinner was served

Kiwanians Hold Old-Fashioned Spelling Bee

DR. P. V. Siegel Is

In a surprise program two teams of Kiwanians were chosen by Program Chairman Victor Scott during the Thursday noon meeting in Bothwell Hotel of Sedalia Kiwanis Club to participate in an old-fashioned spelling bee.

Participants were: Capt. Charles Hanley, Mike Giokaris, the Rev. Lee Soxman and Henry Salveter on one team; and Capt. Pinkney Miller, the Rev. E. L. Hobbs, the Rev. Edward R. Sims and Robert Overstreet, Jr. George H. Scruton functioned as moderator, supplying the tongue-tying words.

Capt. Hanley's team won by a score of 12 correct, 12 missed, over Capt. Miller's team of 11 correct and 13 missed.

Invocation was by R. C. Hempill. Abe Rosenthal led the singing with Lillian Fox accompanist.

President Jack Crawford had as guest R. C. Weed, Kansas City.

Youth Hurts Self In Accidental Rifle Discharge

JAMES ROBERT COOK, 15, of 1502 East Fourth, accidentally shot himself in the left side of his body

Friday afternoon while working around the home of George Miller, 1003 State Fair Blvd. The wound was superficial.

The youth told police he was cleaning around the house and found the .22 caliber rifle and took it to the basement where he fired it through a basement window. He then said he took it back upstairs and later on got it up on the stairs and began to feed on the heads. Of course it takes very little of this sort of damage to the grain to result in considerable loss.

All of these books may be borrowed from the library's collection of books on home building. Numerous magazine articles on cabin construction are also available.

It still looks as though the bulk of the wheat acreage will not have to be sprayed. But there are some fields that will need spraying within the next few days. Parasites are working, but they are not working fast enough to stop all damage.

On barley, do not spray within the week of combining. There is too much possibility of high residues after that time.

Burns Chapel School To Give Play Friday

Burns' Chapel Sunday School will present a playlet entitled "Crippled Joe and the League" tonight at 8 p.m. Also, the queen will be crowned.

Admission is free and a silver offering will be taken. The pastor is the Rev. J. W. Jackson.

The United States had almost 3½ times as many non-farm dwellings in 1950 as in 1900.

Named to Heart Board At Columbia Meeting

Members of the Missouri Heart Association, at their annual meeting held recently in Columbia, elected P. V. Siegel, M.D., Smithton, to the board of directors for a term of two years.

Miss Grace Farley of Sedalia is also a member of the board of directors.

The Missouri Heart Association with its state office at Columbia is affiliated with the American Heart Association. It is committed to a three-point program of research, community service and education, both for the general public and the medical profession.

Capital City Lions Observe 30th Year

The Jefferson City Lions Club held its 30th anniversary last Thursday night at which Past International President S. A. Dodge, Detroit, Mich., was the principal speaker. The meeting was attended by more than 200 Lions and their wives.

Past President Dodge spoke on the activities of the Lions as an international organization and its part in promoting peace throughout the world. He reviewed in part his travels in foreign countries during his term as head of the International Lions Association.

He told of King Gustavus VI being an active member of the Lions in Sweden and of Lord Mayor of London becoming a member of Lions there. The speaker said he had the pleasure of placing the Lions lapel button on the coat of the Lord Mayor of London.

In his talk he told how the service clubs are welding together fellowship between foreign nations and the United States, of how through these organizations a better understanding of the people of the world is being made.

The speaker congratulated the Jefferson City Club on its 30th anniversary and wished to them many more successful years.

Three charter members of the Jefferson City Club were presented scrolls and 30-year pins. They were H. J. Hollerith, Frank B. Newkam and Ernest L. Schneider.

Among the guests were Governor-elect E. B. Smith and Mrs. Smith; International Counsellor D. Kelly Scruton and Mrs. Scruton, and Harry Goldberg, from the Sedalia Lions Club.

Lions were in attendance from many of the 21 clubs which were sponsored by the Jefferson City Club, among them being the Sedalia club. They attended from St. Louis, Springfield, Harrisonville and other distant points of the state.

Horse Show Will Be Held Here June 11

The Western Horsemen of Sedalia will hold its first annual Rodeo Horse Show on June 11 starting at 7 p.m. The rodeo show is to be held at the club grounds which are located at 32nd and Grand.

Extensive plans have been made by the club for this first annual event. Club members have been preparing for several weeks and announced it will be something new in horseshow entertainment for the local people.

Charles Dowdy, president of the club, announced it is not a closed affair and will be open to the public with a small admission charge being made to defray the expenses. Children under 12 will be admitted free.

A street parade will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday, June 11. The parade is to start at Seventh and Ohio travel north on Ohio to Main, west on Main to Osage, thence south on Osage to Seventh, where it will disband. The Saddle Club having the best appearance in the parade will be awarded a $25 cash prize made possible by Virgil Herrick.

Various saddle clubs in this area have been invited to participate and it is expected at least 100 horses with their riders will be in the parade. They include quarter horses, walking horses, parade horses and pleasure horses. Others interested in riding in the parade can contact Frank Zahringer, Route 4, or phone 5298-J-3 after 6 p.m.

Named to Heart Board At Columbia Meeting

Members of the Missouri Heart Association, at their annual meeting held recently in Columbia, elected P. V. Siegel, M.D., Smithton, to the board of directors for a term of two years.

Miss Grace Farley of Sedalia is also a member of the board of directors.

Had Guarantee Of Changes In Contract

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Chicago had maker Harry Lev acknowledged today he was able to "guarantee" in advance that government procurement officers with whom he was friendly would approve a change in specifications for a big Air Force cap contract.

But he insisted there was nothing wrong or strange about that. His testimony followed punitive action by the government against two of the procurement officials who have been linked with his activities.

The testimony came at a public hearing before the Senate Investigations subcommittee at which Lev, trying desperately for laughs to lighten the grim atmosphere, invited one of the senators to "be my guest" for a meal of green turtle steak. He claimed peculiar virtues for the food but did not go into detail.

Lev extended the invitation to Sen. Bender (R-Ohio), who has been one of Lev's bitterest critics. The exchange got so hilarious that Bender himself laughed until he had to wipe away the tears.

It interrupted some pointed questioning by Bender in which Lev conceded that he had made "more than a million" from his profits on government contracts, and could afford turtle steak feasts in Puerto Rico.

"I would like to recommend to the senator to bring you down to Puerto Rico and actually experience yourself what it (the turtle steak) does," Lev said.

"Believe me, Sen. Bender, you wouldn't regret it."

"I don't have that kind of money," Bender observed, wiping away the tears at the crowd of spectators howled.

"It isn't expensive," Lev said. "With the permission of the government—the Senate—you could be my guest."

Lockheed to Develop Turboprop Plane For American Airlines

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Lockheed Aircraft Corp. has won a $5-million-dollar contract with its design for the first commercial turboprop transport to be built in the United States.

American Airlines announced yesterday it has placed an order for 35 of the high-speed, medium-weight planes with cruising speeds of more than 400 m.p.h. and a range of 2,000 miles.

Delivery is to start the latter part of 1958.

Awarding of the contract gives the first challenge to British leadership in the commercial jet-with-propeller field. The turboprop power plant utilizes a turbine but instead of releasing its power in pure forward thrust as a jet engine does, it uses it to turn propellers.

The new four engine Lockheed Electra seats 64, four more than are provided for on the DC7 flown by American.

Convicted For Part In $1,638 Robbery Of Carl Junction Bank

JOPLIN, Mo., June 9.—George Dewey Stoneking, 37, Webb City, Mo., today was convicted and sentenced to 10 years in prison for his part in the $1,638 robbery of the Citizens' Bank of Carl Junction, Mo., Feb. 18.

The jury in the court of U. S. District Judge Charles B. Whitaker deliberated 35 minutes.

Two others, Paul Courtwright, 47, and Earl Vaughn, 55, both of Webb City, had earlier pleaded guilty to violation of federal bank robbery statutes and appeared as government witnesses against Stoneking.

Courtwright, who admitted staging the holdup, drew a seven year sentence, and Vaughn, who received $10 for his part in the robbery, drew a two year sentence.

Testimony in the trial revealed Stoneking drove the getaway car.

Authorities said they recovered $1,546 of the loot from under a back porch at Vaughn's home.

Threaten Sympathy Strikes in Malaya

SINGAPORE (UPI)—Sympathy strikes by 70,000 factory, transport and dock workers threatened today as Singapore's government struggled to end three walkouts and prevent Communist-inspired rioting.

The 40,000 - member Singapore factory and shipworkers union warned it would call a stoppage within 48 hours unless a 40-day-old strike of 1,300 Singapore harbor clerks is settled.

The leader of the union, Lim Chin Siong, is a Legislative Assembly member from the extreme leftist People's Action party. After a strike sparked rioting May 12 in which four persons were killed and 36 injured, Colonial Secretary W. A. C. Goode charged Lim's party was "riddled with Communists backseat drivers."

Youths Admit Taking Car After Holdups In St. Louis Area

POLAR BLUFF (UPI)—Sheriff Bill Brent of Butler County said today two St. Louis youths who have admitted stealing a car after two holdups are being held here for St. Louis authorities.

The sheriff identified the pair as Paul Leonard, 18, and General David Parrish, 20, who said they were employed at a restaurant.

They were arrested last night in an auto repair shop here after state police had investigated reports of an accident on U. S. 53 near here.

The car overturned after missing a curve. Both youths escaped injury but one of two girls with the pair was treated for minor cuts at a hospital and released.

Sheriff Brent said the girls were released after the youth told him the girls had no knowledge of the holdup and stolen car.

Brent said the youths admitted three recent holdups prior to last night, when they admitted taking $20 and $20 in separate holdups, then stealing the car.

Family Wins Prizes At Breeder Exhibit

SOUTH SIOUX CITY, Neb. (UPI)—When Aberdeen-Angus breeders of Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota held their annual field day yesterday the entire Frank Beelaert family, of Page Neb., entered judging contests. This is what happened:

Mr. Beelaert tied for first with O. W. Weidauer, Lemars, Iowa, in the men's contest but got the trophy on a flip of the coin. Son Bob won the junior award. Mrs. Beelaert tied for first with Mrs. Dick Bruner, David City, Neb., in the women's contest but lost the trophy on a flip of the coin.

Physically Handicapped Receive Polio Shots

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Physically handicapped children in St. Louis public schools have received their second shots of Salk polio vaccine.

Dr. Lloyd L. Tate, director of health and hygiene for the St. Louis Board of Education, said yesterday about 70 first and second graders in the Elias Michael School for Crippled Children and Gualaudet School for Deaf Children received the shots Monday.

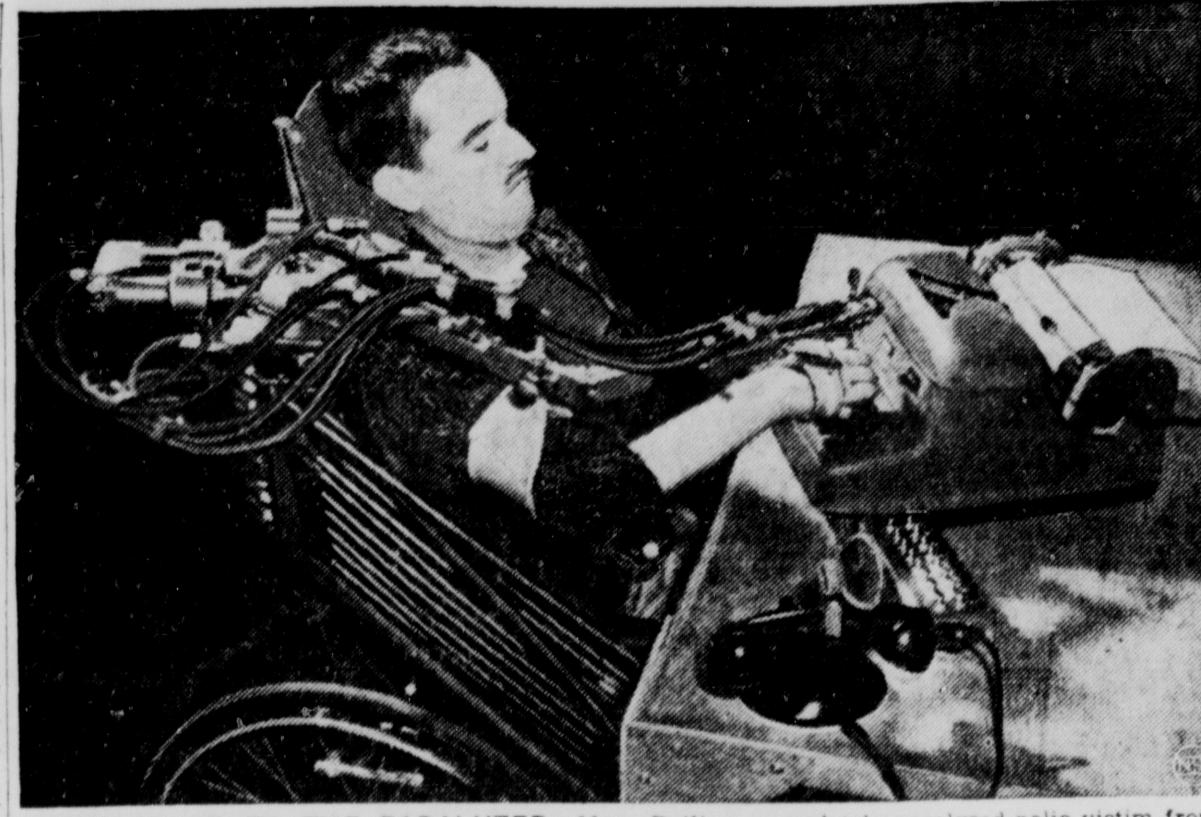

Dr. Tate said vaccine left on the first round of shots was used. The vaccine for second shots in the entire school program has not yet arrived.

Spring To Action

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (UPI)—In a petition filed with the clerk of Superior Court here, Executorm Fullenwider Springs asked that his name be changed to:

Executorm Fullenwider Springs Caldwell.

ANOTHER AID TO THE PARALYZED—Marv Pulliam, completely paralyzed polio victim from Los Angeles, Calif., uses his "substitute arm" which enables him to use an electric typewriter, fed himself, drink from a glass and do other things previously impossible. Friends at North American Aviation worked eight months on the project with the approval of management. The device, called a "Sabre Arm," is hydraulically operated and soon will be offered for manufacture on a non-profit basis so that others may benefit from it.

Treasurer Says Sound Dollar Long-Range Goal

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, treasurer of the United States, today called maintenance of a sound and stable dollar one of the top long-range goals of the Treasury Department.

To reach that goal, she said, the government is dependent on a multitude of tasks carried on by American banks.

She said in a speech prepared for the convention of the Illinois Bankers Assn. that the Treasury is a bank, the largest in the world, "but without the aid of thousands of small banks throughout the country, it could not long continue."

Other objectives of the Treasury Department, she said, included the curtailment of expenses to match the money received from taxes; a frequent decrease of the national debt and proper management of that debt and a slow but steady reduction in the heavy load of taxes.

"Above all," Mrs. Priest said, "we must preserve for the young the great symbol of America, the opportunity to advance and to improve themselves to the limit of their own abilities and their own hard work and endeavors."

Severe Storms Lash Across Texas Again Causing Destruction

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (UPI)—Whiplashing thunderstorms, some loaded with dust and hail and charged with lightning, swept a path of destruction across sections of Texas yesterday and last night.

Damage was widespread but not believed heavy at any particular point. Injuries were few. One man died when struck by lightning.

Tornado reports flew thick and fast for a time, but there was no word of the funnels touching the ground. Six of the ominous clouds were sighted.

Thick dust swirled with the squall line and San Angelo reported its worst duster in the memory of old settlers. Thick dust at Sweetwater caused 10 automobiles and a truck to collide, injuring four persons. At a score of points from central West Texas to the Dallas-Fort Worth area normally daylight hours became black as night.

A lightning bolt destroyed a Dallas home, heavy rain and ear-splitting winds caused traffic accidents which produced injuries, and some 500 high school ROTC boys at summer camp were buffeted and drenched though none was hurt seriously.

Dismissal: Phillip Hopkins, Stoever; Miss Mable Aldredge, 628 East 16th; Mrs. Shelby Monsees, Smithton; Mrs. John G. Cooper, 418 North Osage; Mrs. J. W. Sisemore, 1201 West Sixth George Franklin, Route 2; Franklin Sedala, 200 East Sixth; and Mrs. Paul Hause and son, 2230 West Third.

Woodland — Surgery: Mrs. Lawrence E. Null, 1201 Barnard Drive, Las Vegas, Nev.

Dismissed: Mrs. Raymond Hurt, Star Route.

Marriage Licenses

FLOYD KERNS, 1218 East Fourth and Sandra Ann Houston, 161 South Marvin; Lawrence Lee Roper, St. Louis and Hazel E. Morgan, 700½ South Ohio and Robert Cleveland Dillard, 922 West Sixth, and Shirley Ann Twenter, 520 West Sixth.

Dismissed: Donald M. Clifford, 2416 in the circuit court at Bonneville by Judge Dimmitt Hoffman.

The festival originally was scheduled for the Newport Casino, where it held its first concert last year. Casino officials, however, refused to permit its return.

Festival officials next sought to hold the affair at Belcourt, the former Belmont estate on Bellevue Avenue.

Summer colonists, however, said they would protest to city officials.

The jazz enthusiasts went before the City Council last night and won permission to hold the concert in Freeb Park July 15, 16, and 17.

First Democrat Is Elected Since 1904

HANOVER, N. H. (UPI)—Hanover has elected a Democratic representative to the New Hampshire Legislature for the first time since 1904. Clothing merchant James W. Campion Jr., defeated Republican Robert S. Monahan 503-465 yesterday in a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Edith P. Atkins.

Circuit Court

Two petitions for divorce, both alleging general indignities, were filed Thursday:

Myrtle M. Moon against Glenn P. Moon, Attorney for the plaintiff.

Fred C. Nunn against Stella B. Nunn. Attorneys for the plaintiff are Lamm and Barnett.
